Concerning the Dragons men.

Taking into consideration the paper delivered last night by Capt^{ne} ffenn, wherein he gives his reasons why he cannot proceed to the Southward, according to his dispatch of the 4th Instant, & desiring some Souldiers may be sent aboard, to secure the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{as} estate, by bringing the most mutinous persons ashoar, to have the business examined Itt is agreed & order'd that 10 Souldiers & 20 Seamen out of the George be sent aboard, that said mutinous persons be brought ashoar, examined & seperated aboard such other Ships, as wee can perswade to take them, & others put in their places, that said Ship be unladen & fitted to prosecute the designe order'd last Consultation, if there shall bee occation.

Cap^{t} Thomas Batten Commander of the Rebecca, having in his Generall to us of the 2nd Instant given us severall reasons why he is not able to undertake so hazardous an exploit singly, as to follow the Ships into Pullicherry Road, Itt is order'd that by reason we can send him noe more force att present, then the late twenty Souldiers sent p̃ Sloop Mary (the Dragons men proving mutinous) that (if he be not already gone upon that expedition) he desist att present & makes the best of his way hither, and that afterwards we send him againe with other assistance, to Attack the Siams Ships, when there may be more probabillity of Success, & that the Souldiers he hath aboard, as also those sent in the Sloop Mary, be put ashoar att Conimeer, (the Chief & Councill there having represented to us the danger they fear by the Mogulls approaching) to Secure the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{y}

Though the Rt Honble Compa have order'd that the Fifty Seven Tons of Lead laden upon the Ship George in England for Quintaledge should be returned back in the said Ship unless we could lade some other Quintaledge goods in the roome of itt besides Saltpeetre, yet considering our want of Stock and that the Said Lead will turne to proffitt here, as also in China, and that by advices from the Bay, they have a great quantity of Saltpeetre ready to send up hither, to supply our Stores, & that the Ship George cannot be fully laden with other goods, and wee beleiving also that there may be occation of Saltpeetre in England, if any Warr should break out, we say for these considerations we think itt convenient for the Rt Honble Companys affaires, and much for their benefitt, to take the prementioned Lead out of the Said Ship George, and lade Saltpeetre in the room thereof, and have this day order'd itt to be done accordingly, as also to do the same for what Quintaledge of Lead was laden upon the Shrewsbury from England, and to proceed in lading the rest of what goods we have for England upon both said Ships, with respect to what we are to lade upon the Josiah, that is daily expected, all which Ships we are necessitated to send home partly dead freighted for want of Stock & goods to fill them att present, &. cannot keep them any longer then p agreement in their Charterparties, if the Commanders pleases, who are very punctuall in that case.

Examinations taken of the Dragons men in relation to their running away from Tonqueen, Siam the 26^th [Lacuna in the original] 1686. Coppy Mr Harbins Attestation.

Joseph Leister, Declareth what he is ready to depose on Oath, when required, that the Doctor, and John Palmer on or about the 25^th September, tempted him to run away, & declared they intended to buy two Boats, one to waite over the Barr, the other to carry them over, & that they would fitt themselves with Armes Amunition &c^a necessarys out of the Ship, with resolution for Siam, as being the surest refuge, upon which they sealed the contract with severall Bottles of wine, which continued untill the latter end of Novem^r & then itt broak off.

Anthony Highoe, Declares on the same tearmes, with this addition that when the Doctor saw that Joseph Leister (being Steward of the wine) had spent all the wine broak off & every one of the contract, Spending freely on condition, that if the designe did not go on, every one was to contribute in proportion, which being not able to performe, put them that did run away on the desperate attempt.

[17TH]. ——FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 168⅞.——

John Palmer Confesses the fact and persists in justifying his resolution, that had itt been to do againe, he would have gone, had he an oppertunity.

The Doctor acknowledges the Same with moderation, & a Seeming repentance.

Sloop James proving very leaky & not in a condition to take in Europe goods for Conimeer, & being too early to go to Bengall & scarcely able till she be repaired, Itt is order'd that she be sent to Portonovo to fitt there, & then to return with what Bales they may have remaining, & afterwards to proceed for Bengall, as order'd last Consultation, & by reason we have no other Vessell here, that we can spare but the Shrewsbury, to carry the Europe goods to Conimeer, upon their former & latter contract, Itt is order'd to lade upon the Concord a Country Ship So much as she can carry, & to allow the usuall freight, & what shall be wanting of the amount, wee agree to send by the next opportunity. Sloop James very leaky. to be sent to Portonovo to fit. Europe goods to be laden on the Concord a Country ship for Conimeer.

Sloops Thomas & Mary to go to the Rebecca.

Agreed that an order be sent to Sloops Thomas and Mary to go to the Rebecca and take out of her what they can carry of the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ Cargo from England, to lighten her & bring itt hither.

Concerning the Dragon and Rebecca's going to Zeilon.

Upon inquiry of Severall Manilla Pilotts, we find that the Surat Ship do usually depart from Mallacca homewards about this time of the year, & that the Dragon cannot probably meet with them there, the Winds not Serving, Itt is therefore agreed that the Dragon (with Five & Twenty Souldiers on her) do go to the Rebecca, & both order'd to go to Zeilon, & cruse itt up and down that Coast, till the latter end of March, to meet with them upon their return home, and that Instructions & Commission be given them accordingly, hoping also that they may meet with the two Siam Ships, that lately went off this Coast, before Cap^t^ Batten could reach them, itt being too late in the Year for Said Siam Ships to go to Mallacca, and that Cap^t^ Fenn Commander of the Dragon have what Powder & other amunition that he may have occation of in this expedition, and afterwards to discourse with him about the cha[ng]ing itt. And that Pagodas Three hundred (or rather to the vallue in Dollars, being more Currant money there) be sent by said Cap^t^ Fenn to supply what occations Cap^t^ Bradly Commander of the Saphir Frigat lying att Trincomalay, may have for money for his provissions, as he formerly desired, we not being willing to trouble the Dutch & that Cap^t^ Bradly be order'd to make the best of his way hither.

Mony to be sent Capt Bradly.

Leave given Mr Loe to go home.

M^r^ Joseph Loe having made his request to go for England upon one of the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ Ships now to be dispatcht, for the recovery of his indisposition and memory, Itt is order'd that the Secret^ry^ do give him an order to go upon what ship he shall choose, with his necessarys, upon the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ acc^t^ & to have the accommodation of the great Cabbin.

Interloper Davis to be confin'd to the Fort.

The Agent & Councill in Bengall having sent Thomas Davis the Interloper a Prisoner upon the Josia, Itt is order'd that he be confined to the Fort for the present, and that a good Centinell be sett over him, till we consider what to do with him.

Mr. Gray & Mr Cawly's business decided.

M^r^ John Gray desiring to have the difference betwixt him, and M^r^ Cawley examined, as orderd in Consultation of the 2^d^ of last month, accordingly M^r^ Cawley and M^r^ Gray's wittnesses were sent for, Sworn and examined, & the two papers (enter'd in our Coppy Book of Letters) perused, & by the whole we find itt was only an accidentall & idle quarrell, importing little, however for future example, and because M^r^ Gray should rather be a keeper then a breaker of the peace, wee think fitt to fine him, as well as M^r^ Cawley and so order them to pay Pagodas Ten each for the use of the poor of the Church, & that no more be said or done in the business, and concerning those words which M^r^ Cawley accuseth M^r^ Gray of in the Postscript to his Petition of calling him an informing Rascall, there being none present but themselves, & M^r^ Cawley now giving his voluntary Oath, that those words were (to the best of his knowledge) spoaken by M^r^ Gray, therefore wee think M^r^ Gray worthy a reprehension, though M^r^ Cawley does declare, he thinks they were not malitiously spoaken.

Dyamonds to be registred.

Cap^{t} Earning delivers (by his Purser) his Protest for want of a Lading for his Ship George (as enter'd next after this Consultation) to which hee was answered, that his not going to the Bay, had much impeeded our business for want of the goods, that he might have brought from thence, however we should lade him as soon as possibly we could. Capt Earning delivers a Protest. the answer thereto given.

Cap^{t} Owen delivers also a Protest for want of a Lading for his Ship Josia (as enter'd next after this Consultation) to which he was answered, that the long time he spent in carreening his Ship in the Bay, & not calling at the Northern ffactorys, to bring away their goods, itt being soe late in the year, that the Agent & Councill could not send him thether as order'd, by which wee are disappointed of their goods, & that he arriveing here soe latly was not as yet unladen, however we being in dayly expectations of the Northern goods by some other conveyance, we hoped to dispatch him so, as to save his Monsoon. Capt Owen delivers a Protest. the answer given thereto.

In regard of the Mogulls near approach to the Southern Factorys & our present warr in the Bay against him, Itt was taken into consideration, whether 'twere best, to send the Europe goods as order'd to Conimeer or not, but here being no certainty thereof, & considering the great damage may come to the goods by lying by, & that the truck of such a quantity of Europe goods for Callicoes, to be brought in by the latter end of June next, is of so great import & advantage to the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{a} in the Lading for their Shipping, besides the advance on the sale of the Europe goods, and not questioning but to have all the Investment in, before the troubles reach these parts if the Mogull should proceed, Itt is resolv'd and agreed that they be sent as formerly order'd. Consideration of sending Europe goods to Conimeer or noe. Agreed to be sent as order'd.

Order'd that Pag° 1000 be paid Mr Thomas Wavell Paymaster to defray the Charges Garrison &c^a And Pag° 50 to Narso &c^a Washers on acc^t of Washing & Curing the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Callicoes. P 1000 to be paid Mr Wavell. P 50 to be paid the Washers.

William Phillips now shewing an order from the Agent & Councill of Bengall to Cap^t Owen, to carry him for England upon the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as acc^t which he produced not before, when wee order'd him to pay for his passage, Itt is therefore thought convenient to approve and confirme the said order. Wm Phillips to go home on the Rt Honble Compas accompt.

The R^t Hon^ble Comp^as order for the paying of 5 p̃ Cent̃, Custome, was taken into consideration, & much debated, whether itt extended to their own Covenanted Servants, & finding by the Generall of the 14^th January 168⅝ from the Hon^ble Private Committee, to the President Cap^t Yale & Cap^t Lucas, that itt is left to them to persuade the Portugues, & Natives to the Payment of itt, or to deferr itt if they thought convenient, which was brought to a Generall Councill & there debated and concluded, that in regard they pay att present more then the 5 p̃ C^t & not discontented att itt, itt is thought convenient, to let itt stand as itt is, but no mention therein made of their own Servants, thô they seem to be comprehended in their Generall to the President & Councill, of the same date, yet itt being dubious, we agree for the present, to write to their Hon^rs, desiring their favour to us, that they would bee pleased not to require more of us, then we have formerly paid, & that we may have something more of priviledge, then freemen or Natives have for our encouragm^t & in regard times are so troublesome, and trading dead, we do agree to forbear demanding itt from the English freemen att present, and that what the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a shall possitivly order hereafter, shall be punctually complied with. Concerning paying 5 p̃ Ct Custome.

Finding in the Bengall Consultation Book, that att a Consultation of the 8^th Nov^r 1686 Mr Francis Ellis & Mr John Beard do report that the Rup^s 5000 paid into the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Cash att Hugly on the 19^th Jan^ry 168⅝ in Bowannidas his name, by the late Agent Beard, was the propper mony & estate of the deceased Mr John Richards, of which also the President has advice in a Letter to him from Agent Charnock, & that we may either take itt out of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Cash here, or order itt to be so done in the Bay, to be remitted hither, for the use of Elizabeth Richards, & another of his Children in England, therefore considering that the said Orphan here hath nothing to maintaine her, besides two years diett, & other necessarys for her to be paid for, Itt is order'd that itt be paid to the President for their acc^t & because we are in want of money att present, to be made rec^d in the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Cash, & a Bill given for the same, att 10 p̃ Cent̃ Intrest p̃ Anñ accompting Rup^s 3½ to a Pag° & that we advise thereof to Bengall that they allow what Intrest due thereon, from the time the money was paid into the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Cash there, to this time, & remit us the same as soon as conveniently they can, for the use of said Children. Concerning Rups 5000 of Mr John Richards estate.

In regard the Agent & Councill in Bengall, have sent up Thomas Davis the Interloper, as a Prisoner upon the Josia (which we still disapprove of) without any proof of what Debts he has contracted with the Moors, during his residence in the Bay, we have had divers debates what to do with him in this case, whether to detaine him a Prisoner here, send him to England, or back to the Bay, which hath appeared very difficult for us to determine, by reason of some inconveniencys on all hands, however beleiving that he is much in Debt there (& having Mr Lee's Attestation (as enter'd next after this Consultation) concerning itt, & what Cap^t Owen has said to us about itt, that itt was so generally reported in Bengall, before he came from thence, that the Moors Govern^r demanded him of the Agent &c^a for his Debt to the Merchants) we conclude itt best, not to grant him passage on any of our Ships, till we can have certaine advices from the Bay, how itt is, least if we should part with him, the Moors may charge the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a with what he owes, & place itt to their Acc^t whenever the business in the Bay shall be made up, & therefore Mr Gray Mr Higginson & Mr Cheney are order'd Concerning Davis the Interloper.

[3RD] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 168⅞.——

to tell said Davis, that we cannot permitt him to go for England, upon any of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Ships, but if he can find good security for his appearance, when we shall require itt, he may have the priviledge of going where he pleases in the Town, & that we shall write to the Bay for better information concerning him.

Thomas Ley of Councill for affaires of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a in the Bay of Bengall now here present, reports that Thomas Davis Inhabitant there, some time in August or the beginning of September, last, was Seized by some order of the Agent & Councill att Hugly or some of them, to which order for more certainty he referrs.

And that the Moors Govern^r did thereupon send to the Agent demanding that the said Davis should be delivered to him, insisting that the said Davis was a Debtor to Severall of the Country Merchants, who had made complaint, that their Debtor was carried away by the English, without any Satisfaction made them, as he alledged in divers messages that passed on that occation.

Coppy of Capt Battens complaint.

The humble complaint of Thomas Batten to the Hon^{ble} William Gyfford President & Governour &c^{a} Councill in Fort St. George &c^{a}.

Hon^{ble} S^{r} &c^{a}.

In my pursuit of the King of Siams Ship according to your Hon^{rs} &c^{a} order, of the 3^{d} of January I Anchored att Trincum[bar] the 7th ditto, & sent my boat on shoar, to the Commissary Generall to [be] Satisfied, if I saluted the King of Denmarks Fort, if they would return me Gun for Gun, & sent mee word upon his honour he woul[d] upon which I saluted with 13 Guns & he answered me with 27, & sen[t] off two Gentlemen, to invite mee on Shoar, & I was very honourably entertain'd, att the time of my being there, there was severall Boats passed by, & I sent my boat on board them to vissit them, the which the

——FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 168⅞.—— [24TH.]

Commissary resented very ill, & told mee he would not suffer itt, in their Road, and I promised him that I would not do itt againe, upon which he was very well satisfied, & wee were good friends untill the 14th of ditto, in the evening, I had been att the Capt Lievtenants, and as I passed by the Commissarys house where he was, I sent up to him, to beg the liberty of a Boat to go off, because itt was near night, he sent down word, that I must come up, & drink one glass of wine, but I desired to bee excused, because itt was late, & bad going off in the night, but upon his second message, I went up, & chanced to fall into discourse of the Prerogative of the Port of a neuter Nation, as he being neuter between the English & the Siamers, notwithstanding if he furnished any of the King of Siams Ships with money, Armes or men, or anything that might strengthen her for warr, he made a breach of peace, & itt might bee as lawfull for mee to fire att the Fort, as att the King of Siams Ship, upon which expression, in a rage & passion he called for an Arrest, immediatly a Serjant with a file of Musqueteers, Seazed on my person, disarming me of my Sword & Stick, and carried me to the Fort, & confined mee in a close room, wth a Guard for two howers, in which time I wrot him, that I knew noe power as he had, to detain me, having the Kings Commission, and upon an expedition, for saying nothing, but what was Justifiable by Law, and as long as he did, he declared himself no friend to the King of England, before this paper came to his hand, I was released, and I went to Skipper Sea-brooks house, & when this paper came to his hand, hee flew out into a passion againe, & Swore that he would carry [me ?] home with him to Coppenhaven, to answer itt to the King of Denmark, & sett a guard of a Serjant & half File over me all night, the next morning I considering, how that as I was confined, I could no ways help myself (for he would not suffer any of my men, to go to the Boat to go off) & that I might bee better able to defend myself, att liberty, I wrot to him, thus, that if I had said anything that did not become me, I begg'd his pardon & upon the receipt of this I was released, after this I many times offerr'd to read his Majesty's Proclamation, to him, Your Honr &ca please to send me, but he refused to hear itt, & when one English man Petitions to him, that he might serve his own Master, the King of England he confin'd him, & when the Danes Ship Sailed, he put them all on board, & sent them upon acct of Warr for Surat, in their Service, the consequence & Substance of these abuses, I humbly leave to your Honr &ca to consider on, & Subscribe myself

Your Honrs &ca
most humble Servant

THOMAS BATTEN.

Coppy Mr. Holloway's Attestation.

On the fourteenth of February the Capt going towards the Seaside, sent a Messenger to the Commissary to desire the liberty of a Boat, that he might go off, the Commissary returned an answer, that he desired to see the Captaine, which was very unwillingly granted, as soon as they came togeather, they fell into a discourse, about each others priviledges, where the Captaine told the Commissary, that if he furnished any enemies of the King of Englands, with Armes, Amunition men or money, he became an enemy to the Crown of England, and that if he protected them under his Guns, our Captaine told him, he would endeavour to force them thence, which the Commissary resented very ill, telling the Captaine withall, that if he did offer to fire att anything in their Road, he would fire att the Ship, which the Captaine returned with some passion, that if he offerred to fire att the Ship, he would fire against the Fort, or Something to that effect, whereupon the Commissary in a great passion, cried out an Arrest, which was immediatly performed, the Captaine being disarmed & sent a Prisoner to the Fort.

A Letter from the President to Sangana & Madapa att Conjeveron read & past excusing our not sending the Rent mony till a Phirm^{d} from the King. Letter to Sangana & Madapa.

Order'd that what mony M^{r} John Cheney shall have occation of, to pay for Paddy & Rice, be paid him by M^{r} Lucas in Dollars. Mr Lucas to pay Mr. Cheney Dollrs to pay for Rice & Paddy.

A Letter now rec^{d} from Thomas Davis the Interloper was read wherin he desires a Supply for his maintenance, which is order'd to be considered of hereafter. Letter from Davis Interloper to be considered.

Having been very busy hitherto, since M^{r} John Davis his coming from Coodaloor (as order'd) wee have not had leisure till now to proceed upon examination of the following particulars, Viz^{t} The Portonovo Merchants complaint against M^{r} William Cawley, & his answer, M^{r} Davis & M^{r} Wilson's complaint of ditto & his answer, as also M^{r} Cawley's charge against M^{r} Davis, and his answer and charge against M^{r} Cawley, we shall gradually and strictly enquire into their severall charges and answers, and then judge of itt accordingly, & what we have had this day is as followeth. No leisure till now to examine the business between Mr Davis & Mr Cawley &ca. to be gradually & strictly enquired into.

Portonovo Merchants their complaint of M^{r} Cawley rec^{d} the 2^{d} of October 1686 & M^{r} Cawley's answer dated 30th October 1686. Examination of the Portonovo Merchants complaint against Mr Cawley.

M^{r} Cawley acknowledges that he offered to strike one of the Portonovo Merchants, but denies to have actually Strook them, and Cap^{t} Goodlad, his Chief Mate and Doctor being present, when there was a quarrell between M^{r} Cawley and those Merchants, and heretofore affirmed to us, that he did not strike them then, itt must be further enquired into by M^{r} Ingram whether the accusation of the Merchants, relate to the same time, when Cap^{t} Goodlad &c^{a} were present.

M^{r} Cawley also acknowledges that he did upon a controversy he had with said Merchants about accompts depending between them, restrain them some time in the Factory, while they were bringing Cloth into the Factory, but denies to have confin'd them three dayes without Victualls, as the Merchants pretend & M^{r} Davis declares improbable.

The Said Merchants upon their being abused by M^{r} Cawley repairing with a complaint to Coodaloor, refused to return to Portonovo, till they had rec^{d} satisfaction, though there was then business att Portonovo of the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{us} to be dispatch'd, in consideration whereof M^{r} Davis and M^{r} Willson by Consultation, thought itt necessary to give the Said Merchants am^{t} to about Pag^{o} 56 without which they could not prevail with the Merchants to return, till they should receive answer from the President, & itt do's not appear that the said Pag^{o} 56 was given them by M^{r} Davis for the gaining of Pag^{o} 2000 Credit, as M^{r} Cawley seems to intimate in his answer.

[24TH.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, MARCH 1687.——

Of Mr Davis & Mr Willsons complaint against Mr Cawley.

M^{r} Davis & M^{r} Willsons complaint of M^{r} Cawley in Coodaloor Generall dated 25th October 1686 and M^{r} Cawley's answer dated the 3^{d} Novem^{r} 1686.

Article 1st. The Merchants accusing him to M^{r} Davis of Saying, that his Credit, was as good, as the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{as} he offers his Oath to the contrary.

Article 2^{d}. The Books were finished all but a few Articles, but being taken from him by M^{r} Davis, he could not compleat them.

Of Mr. Cawley's charge against Mr. Davis.

The remainder of M^{r} Cawleys answer, to the Coodaloor Generall, is contained in M^{r} Cawley's charge against M^{r} Davis, of the 4th Novem^{r} 1686 which follows to be considered, with M^{r} Davis answer thereto.

Article 1st. That M^{r} Davis has made a benefitt by the exchange of Pagod^{s} itt do's appear, that in former Years, the difference of said exchange, was brought to Proffit & Loss, but M^{r} Cawley being then Book keeper, omitted to bring the same into last years books, which is since brought into this years books by M^{r} Willson, and the whole amount of Pagodas, was not more then 50 or 60 Pag^{o}, the differences about 3 Pagodas.

Article 2^{d}. That M^{r} Davis has bought two Horses, of his particular Servant Peddana, which he acknowledges, but affirms, that they are not dear bought, having been offered more money for them, then they cost, and that M^{r} Ingram, was then only of Councill, and that they were bought by Consultation, as he will make appear. That he presented his said Servant Peddana, with three yards of Scarlett, as often as he presents the Merchants, which he acknowledges, and thinks reasonable, for the good Service he doe's the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{a} but referrs itt to us, whether he shall repay itt or no. But as to the five yards given to Peddana, itt doe's appear, to be M^{r} Davis his own Cloth, and for his own accompt.

That M^{r} Davis Servant has a Horse kept in the Stable, which M^{r} Davis offers his Oath, that he payes the charge himself, and M^{r} Cawley owns, that he cannot make the contrary appear.

That M^{r} Davis favours the Merchants in Sorting Cloth, wherein wee being very inquisitive, as relating so much to the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{as} interest, & that the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Company had formerly complain'd of Coodaloor goods, M^{r} Lucas doe's Attest that (M^{r} Alford and M^{r} Fraser present) opening Severall Bales of every sort of goods, that came in October last from Coodaloor, they found them, in their Judgment well Sorted, according to our Musters here, But as to the difference, between him and M^{r} Davis, about taking in Cloth, which M^{r} Cawley had turn'd out M^{r} Ingram and M^{r} Willson declare, that they have examined Severall times some peeces of Cloth, which M^{r} Cawley had rejected, and finding them to bee as good as Muster, have taken them in, and what M^{r} Cawley saies about Sorting, must relate to Said goods, because M^{r} Cawley ha's not been above twelve months att Coodaloor.

Article 3d. That Mr Davis has presented att Portonovo & Coodaloor so largly, as that the greatest part, of Pago 1000 might have been yearly Saved, the Pago 63 to Santogee Pontolo, was given by Mr Davis when att Madras, & his Councill att Coodaloor, but is approved by Mr Ingram & Mr Willson as necessary, but for what presented to the Dutch not allowable.

Article 4th. As to the Sortment of the Cloth, 'twas yesterday fully examined on the 2d Article, As to the Musters Mr Davis owns, that there is one Muster & no more Vizt the head Muster of Beteelaes, which is better att Portonovo then att Coodaloor, but the contract was made by the Musters att Coodaloor, & therefore could not sort by the Musters of Portonovo, however sorted no Cloth by said head Muster of Beteelaes, & affirms that the Coodaloor Musters were sent from Fort St George, by which he saies he is obliged to Sort, if they had been Dungarees.

Mr Cawley doe's offer his Oath, that when he advised Mr Davis to sort by the Portonovo Musters, Mr Davis did give him for answer, that he would do what he pleased, for all him.

As to what Mr Cawley charges Mr Davis with managing the Compas business without Consultations, Itt does appear, that they have Signed to Letters & Consultations, yet that he did not advise with them in a regular way before the transacting of business.

[25TH.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, MARCH 1687.——

As to Mr Davis his ordring the entry of the Acct's of expences 'tis what belongs to all Chiefs to examine all accots & see them duly enter'd, but Mr Cawley affirms in generall, that he uses to enter things under wrong heads, but not remembring any particular instance, he is to peruse the acct of expences, & give us a report thereof.

Article 5th. As to Charges of repaires Mr Gray affirmes, that there was occation for repairing of the House Mr Cawley mentions, & Mr Ingram & Mr Willson are of the same opinion.

Letters & Souldiers p Curtana to be sent for ashoar.

The Curtana Capt Anthony Weltden Commander coming in here and the Commander coming ashoar this morning, to know if we had any service for Bengall, & understanding by him, that he had on board Letters from the Rt Honble Compa to the Agent & Councill in Bengall, as also 23 Souldiers &ca for said place, & being thought very convenient for the Rt Honble Compas affaires that we have a sight of their Honrs Letters (the Ship coming from Portsmouth in June last) Itt is order'd that the Secretary do give the Commander an order to bring them ashoar, as also the Souldiers (to remain here) having great occation for them att this place, as by the report of our Councill of Officers, which we have already advised the Rt Honble Compa of, in giving them an acct of our condition.

Petty Land custome upon Paddy & Rice to be excused.

Upon the Order we made the 17th Inst that Paddy & Rice brought in should pay Petty Land Custome, as formerly, wee find that many do forbear to bring itt in, Wee therefore think convenient to order that the said Custome be excused a little longer, till the troubles in the Country bee over.

Goods brought in att Coodaloor ready to be sorted near Pago 20,000.

Having rec^d^ advice from M^r^ Ralph Ingram att Coodaloor that the Merchants had brought in near Twenty Thousand Pagodas in goods to be Sorted, & that new Governours were put into the places, of Harja Maha Raja, & Gopall Pundit, which he feared would cause some trouble in those Parts, Itt was proposed to most of the Councill to go, who excusing themselves in being Strangers to the place & business, & the Investment & Contract being begun by another, they might find some impediments therein, Itt was therefore thought absolutly necessary to deferr the further examination of M^r^ Cawleys charge against M^r^ Davis, and to send M^r^ Davis (as being best acquainted with the people & Government, & to send another, would encrease the charge & probably meet some obstructions,) M^r^ Mose & Mr. Willson, with all speed to Coodaloor, to dispatch the Sorting of the Cloth, & sending itt hither, as wee shall hereafter advise, & to take care of the mannagment of the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ concernes there, upon the alteration of the Governours, who otherwise might give us more trouble, & for the better Securing the Factory & the concerns there. Loyall Adventure being dayly expected to be sent to the Northward after her arrivall.

Charge of hiring a Country Ship saved thereby.

The Loyall Adventure being dayly expected, hearing by a Ship that lately came from Acheen, that she was ready to come from thence, Itt is thought most convenient to send her (after her arrivall here) for Metchlepatam, Madapollam, & Pettepollee (instead of the Trevitore) where she may take in part of her Lading for England, & bring away the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ Servants & concernes from those places, & save the charge of hiring a Country Ship.

Curtana to bee unladen.

Order'd that the Lead & Armes on board the Curtana from England be taken ashoar, Viz^t^ the Lead, because wee judge they have no occation of itt in the Bay, having sent hither, a great quantity upon the hired Ships, att a dear freight Viz^t^ 4 lb p̃ Tonn; The Swords, Musquets, Coats &c^a^ belonging to the Souldiers, because we have order'd them to be kept here, and the Granado Shells, which may bee very Serviceable to us, in case the Mogull should come down upon us, & that a small Morter peece be bought of Cap^t^ Weltden, which he is perswaded to spare us, &.may be very usefull to us.

Obstructions, impediments & complaints of the Mint. reasons there of enquired into of Mr Nathaniell Higginson. Reasons given by Mr Higginson.

Having had great Obstructions & impediments in the Coyning of the mony in this Mint, & complaints from severall Merchants, for detenchion of their mony, paying great interest for the Same, Itt was taken into consideration, & the reasons thereof enquired into of Mr Nathaniell Higginson, who supplies the place of Mintmaster, who gave us a report thereof as followeth.

There is now a considerable parcell of Gold imported by black Merchants ready to be Coyned, but the Braminee & Mr Johnson differ so much in their Assay, that I know not how to proceed without your direction.

This Gold being all melted down, & from the Same peece, a part being delivered the Braminee, and a part to Mr Johnson, the Braminee reports itt Pagoda Matt, & Mr Johnson near ½ a grain better, which is half p̃ Cent.

Another parcell of Gold imported by the Braminee of the Mint, to be coyned upon his own accompt, poiz oz 103 : 06 : 12 he reported to be Pagoda Mat, & Mr Johnson to bee ½ gr better, which is something more then ½ p̃ Ct whereupon I caused 5 oz thereof, to be remelted, with the addition of ½ dwt. of Alloy, which is ½ p̃ Ct and caused Assays thereof to be made, By the Braminee & Mr Johnson, the former reports itt to be ½ p̃ Ct worse, the latter a little better then Pagoda Matt, both adheering to their first Assay, & I cannot suppose that the Braminee would knowingly make this parcell, ½ p̃ Ct worse then itt is, because 'tis his own.

There has been frequent other instances of their disagreeing in the Assays, to the hindrance of the Coynage, & discouragment of the Importers, in so much that they have sometimes desired to have their Gold delivered them uncoin'd, & the difference has most frequently been, in M^r Johnsons reporting the Gold prepared for Pag^o Matt, to bee better then Matt, as you may remember I have often acquainted you with particular instances, but either by adding a little Alloy, or reassaying, they have att length, come pretty near in their reports, so that I need not trouble you with any further notice thereof, but desire your Hon^r &c^a to observe one instance more, of the difference in their Assays, which to me is an argum^t of the uncertainty of both their Assays Viz^t.

——FORT S^T. GEORGE, APRILL 1687.——

One Ingot of Gold belonging to M^r James Paiva imported the 30^th past, reported by the Braminee 4 $\frac{15}{16}$ worse then Pagoda Mat, by M^r Johnson car : 1 : gr. 1 : qr. 1 : which is more then $5\frac{1}{4}$ worse, then Pagoda Mat, I caused 10 dwt. thereof to be melted down, with 5 dwt. of fine Gold (Viz^t some Assay peeces after burning) which is after the rate of 8 p̃ C^t worse, and then the Braminy reports itt to bee Pagoda Mat, but not being satisfied to Coyn itt att the rate of 8 p̃ C^t worse, when M^r Johnson had before reported itt but $5\frac{1}{4}$ I desired him to make an Assay of the Same, after melted with the fine Gold, & he now reports itt to be Pagoda Mat.

I pretend not to understand Assays, & therefore do not reflect upon M^r Johnsons art, nor can I charge the Braminee, with any deceit in their Assays, but must declare to your Hon^r &c^a that they doe So frequently disagree, that unless there bee some remedy found out, the Coynage will bee discouraged, towards which, I cannot offer more to your consideration then this, that M^r Johnson & the Braminee do not agree what Pagoda Mat is, The Braminee Saies 'tis $8\frac{5}{8}$ M^r Johnson thinks itt less then $8\frac{5}{8}$ & as compared with the Standard of England, to bee car. 1 : gr. 1 : worse then Standard, whereas att the rate of $8\frac{5}{8}$ 'tis exactly car. 1 : gr. $1\frac{1}{5}$: till they agree in the Standard of the Coyn, they cannot agree in their Assays.

To which I think I may add, that on the 9^th Instant, I delivered M^r Johnson, an Assay peece, of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Gold, but he has not yet done itt, though he has made other Assay's for himself, and others, two dayes since I demanded itt, he promised to do itt that day & also to make Assay of a parcell of Pagoda Mat, whereof the Braminees make all their Assay, & of a new parcell of Gold of 771 oz. prepared for Coyning, but instead of that, I hear he went aboard Ship, and is not yet returned, the Braminees & the Merchants clamor upon mee, to have the business go on, but I cannot proceed, here is 1700 Pagod^s of the Comp^as & 17000 Pag^o of the Merchants. He did not make any Assay that I know, of 2 or 3 parcells of Tonqueen Gold & was forced to Coyn itt without, your Hon^r wanting the money, nor can I yet prevail with him, after two months frequent demand to make restitution to the Braminee, of the Assay peeces of Gold, w^ch amount to above Pag^o 30, but to satisfie them, that they should bee paid, I have taken Pag^o 30 out of a parcell of Gold, imported by M^r Johnson, & keep by mee for their Security.

If you question anything I have Said, please to cause a strict enquiry to be made thereinto, by any of the Councill.

Resolve upon debating the business of the Mint.

Upon debating of which, wee think itt absolutly necessary, as well for the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as advantage, as the dispatch of the Coyning of Gold brought to this Mint, that whatever persons are contented to stand to the Assay of the Braminee of the Mint, shall have their Gold coyned by them, & that M^r James Johnson, do with the Braminy Assay & Coyne the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Gold, but (he M^r Johnson) not to meddle with any other besides, because wee have found so great inconveniency as before mention'd for want of dispatch, occation'd by his Ignorance, willfullness or Idleness.

In answer to a paper delivered by Mr Higginson against James Johnson, about assaying the Gold, to the President & Councill of Fort St George &a. Coppy of Mr. Johnsons answer to Mr Higginson paper of the Mi--

I should have thought that after the many complaints made p̃ the Rt Honble East India Compa of the defrauds from year to year, practiced by the black people in the Mint of Fort St George, none would have presumed to vindicate those ever known deceivers, of the Company, notwithstanding they have taken such great care to send out such proved persons, to inspect & report the truth of the Assayes, in order to detect those cheats, & redress those abuses, the Rt Honble Compa for some years past have much suffered by.

But since Mr Higginson is the person that has undertook itt, and accordingly has preferred a paper against mee, I shall hereby endeavour to clear myself, from his ignorant, & faulce accusation.

As to the ten parcells of Gold brought in by the black people, itt was melted down togeather, what I reported itt to bee, I stand to, and as to the Braminees Gold which Mr Higginson supposes would not be made worse, to cheat himself (though he informed mee, itt was not his, but his Honrs) lett him make itt how hee will, I will stand to my report.

As to our often disagreeing, as Mr Higginson so much speaks of, I can say no more to then this, that according to the best of my Skill, which has been proved, before the Rt Honble Compa p̃ the best of Artists & Sworn Assay Master of the Kingdome of England, (Sr John Brattell) I cannot in my conscience comply to give itt otherwise, notwithstanding the pretended complaints of the black Merchants, taking out their Gold to bee coyned in other Mints, whereas I know they are as unwilling to loose, as other people, who has been glad to stay, rather then bee cheated by the Minters, there being no less then three or four hundred people of their own families, that are wholy maintained by proffit thereof.

To the Ingot of Gold of Mr James Pavia, reported to be car. gr. qr. 1—1—1 worse, I affirm to be true, & for assaying itt afterwards, as Mr Higginson speaks of, I also justifie, lett him & the Braminee have jugled togeather as they please.

Itt is a pretty thing for a man that pretends not to understand Assays, shall justifie a deceitfull Braminy & yett would appear not to reflect upon my Art, whereas no greater reflection can bee made.

And As to the disagreing in the Pago Matt, I cannot help itt for I can make itt no otherwise then what the Pago produces which car. gr. 1 1 worse then Standard, which is ½ of a grain worse then what they say their Matt is, &, tis their faults, & not mine, if they make not their Pago right.

Mr Higginson is very severe in his complaint of negligence against mee, that I willfully omitted an Assay, of the Compas Gold, in doing my own & others, in the meantime, In answer to which, the Assay of the Rt Honble Compas was mislaid, amongst other Gold Assays, which had been Assay'd, which as soon as asked for was made, & as to the new parcell, & Pag° Matt, know nothing of.

[23RD.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, MAY 1687.——

My going aboard of Ship is no more then what is usuall amongst the Inhabitants & Companies Servants, who have business to do, therefore that complaint is as before; In generall whatever Gold or Silver Assays was brought to mee was Assayed.

If the Braminy [s] had come for the Thirty Pag° of Assays, in my hand, they might have had them, giving an accompt of them, for I never made use of them, nor was I so indigent to cause M^r Higginson as he pretends, to keep Thirty Pag° of mine, for Security which is very faulce.

If your Hon^r &c^a can prove I am ignorant in the business, I came for, you ought to dismiss mee, if otherwise to give me incouragm^t.

May itt please your Hon^r &c^a I designe not in anything in this, to create and maintaine any difference, as many turbulent persons, might on such occation as this have done, but my intention is to live quietly & submissivly [sic] under my Superiors, & to follow the great imploy our R^t Hon^ble Masters have intrusted me with, with all the Zeale and dilligence imaginable, But your Hon^r &c^a must pardon mee, if my conscience will not suffer me to comply with the cheats the Braminy, and Minters would as they have formerly done, put upon the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a as well as upon particular persons, which have been the only occation of detarding the Gold in the Mint, and I humbly conceive that I signifie nothing here if my opinion & report be not beleived before theirs, So hoping your Hon^r &c^a will take in good sence, what I have written in my own Justification, I begg leave to Subscribe

Fort S^t George

To the Honble President &ca Councill
of Fort St. George.

A Reply to Mr James Johnson's paper of 24th May. Coppy Mr. Higginson's reply to Mr. Johnson's paper.

Mr Johnson charges me, with undertaking to vindicate the deceivers of the Rt Honble Compa & suggests that I juggle with the Braminees, & Sae's I have preferred against him, an ignorant & false accusation.

If I have undertook to vindicate the deceivers of the Rt Honble Compa your Honr &ca are Sensible that I was not very forward in itt, nor could I avoid itt for the Coinage being delayed, the Merchant [s] made public complaint, & your Honr &ca thereupon, required mee to give you an acct in writing, which containes meer matter of fact, concerning the differences between Mr Johnsons & the Braminee's Assays, & Mr Johnsons neglect of his business, which if itt doe's in the nature of the thing reflect upon him, I can't help itt, and do upon further consideration affirme, that the whole of itt (for Substance) is true. And since your Honr &ca pleased to require my answer to his paper, allow mee to Say Something for my own vindication, as well as for making good what I have Said concerning him.

I think itt appears, that my design was, neither to vindicate the Braminees, against Mr Johnson, nor indeed to charge them with any Cheats, for I beleive (as every body do's) that they do cheat, & therefore cannot undertake to vindicate them, but must so farr confess my ignorance, that I cannot yet make any discovery thereof, & therefore cannot accuse them, as I certainly would, if I could to any good purpose.

For Mr Johnson to suggest, that I juggle with the Braminees, is Soe significant an expression, & do's so much touch my reputation, that I require him to render, some such acct of my practices, as may att least give your Honr &ca reason to Suspect mee, otherwise that must pass for a meer malicious Suggestion.

And since he has given mee so Scandalous a Charactar, [sic] & instead of acknowledging his gross miscarriages, do's retort upon mee, that I have preferred against him, an ignorant & false accusation, & with a strange confidence do's affirme

That he did Assay the Rt Honble Compas Gold from Acheen as Soon as asked for.

That he has assayed what was brought to him.

That the Braminees might have had the Assay peices of Gold when ever they came for them.

I will more fully explain those three particulars, & give some further instances, of that great zeal & diligence he pretends to.

The story of Assaying the Rt Honble Compas Gold from Acheen is thus. On Satterday 9th Aprill, I delivered Assay peices of that Gold to him & the Braminees. The latter's assay being finished on 11th morning I went to Mr Johnson for his. Hee told mee he had mislaid the Assay, which was the reason, why he had not done itt on Satterday, when he made other Assays, but would do itt on that day, & in my hearing bid his man make the fire. But instead of doing the business, he went aboard Ship, & I saw him not, (nor heard of his coming ashoar) till Thursday 14th. Hee Sai's, I am Severe, about the mislaid Assay peices, No, I was well satisfied with his excuse, & had not Spoaken of that. But I think he deserves to be more Severely dealt with, for running away from the Mint, So many dayes, without acquainting any body, when hee could not but know, wee then waited for his Assay for which I suppose hee can make no excuse, because he has not yet pretended to any, And itt would bee no injustice, to make him pay the intrest of 18000 Pago (of the Rt Honble Compas & particular persons) for So many dayes, as itt was delayed coyning for want of his Essays. This is not the first time he has gone out of town, without acquainting any body, & caused the Mint to Stand Still for want of his Essays. If I am mistaken in the precise mention of dayes, I am Sure, I am not So much mistaken as to alter the case.

Whereas he Sais in Generall, that whatever Gold was brought to him was Assayed, I do affirm, that of the Eight parcells of Gold from Tonqueen, assay peices were deliver'd to him, att the same time, as to the Braminees, That he did make report of Six, the other two he neglected to assay, thô he made Severall other assays, and was often called upon by mee for them, In the meantime, the Gold was prepared by the Braminee's assay's, So as to come out a little better in the whole then the Tonqueen Touch, yet being unwilling to coyn itt without Mr Johnsons assays (which I did not think safe for mee to do) I was very importunate with him, to make the Assays, But your Honr &ca urging a necessity for mony, (which was then wanting for charges of the Garrison) I told you 'twas ready for coyning, & that itt did come up to the Tonqueen Touch, but I only waited for Mr Johnson Assays, Your Honr &ca replied you could not stay, & that the Gold must be coyned, & therefore was coined before Mr Johnson, had assayed those two parcells, thô there were eighteen dayes between the delivery of the Assay peices to him, & the coyning of the Gold, & if he has assayed them since, 'tis to no purpose, So that if that Gold, do's not in the produce answer expectation, 'tis not my fault, & for him to Say, that what was brought to him, was assayed, is att best but an equivocation.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1687.—— [9TH.]

As to the Assay peices of the Rt Honble Compas & particular persons Gold, which he has recd of the Braminee, Since I have been in the Mint, The Braminees, & black Merchants concerned, did So frequently complain to mee, that I was forced to Speak very often (att least a dozen times) to Mr Johnson to deliver them, which he still promised to do att any time, but could not find time to do itt, att length he required their acct & I have more then once from the Mint, sent the Connecoplee of the Mint, with the acct to Mr Johnson, but hee Still brought mee word, that he could neither get Mr Johnson to take the acct nor to deliver the Gold, Whereupon they suspected Mr Johnson did intend to keep them, & for their Security and satisfaction, did keep in my hands Thirty Pagodas, out of a parcell of Gold imported by Mr Johnson, which afterwards he perswaded the Braminee to deliver him, having given them a fair promise of delivering them the Assay peices, but when he had gott the mony, put them off from time to time. So that, Seeing nothing could prevail with him & itt being necessary, att the latter end of Aprill, to ballance the accotts of the Mint (which I could not do, till the Braminees paid mee the ballance of the produce of the Tonqueen Gold, which they detained in their hands, to the amount of the assay peices of that Gold) I complained to your Honr & Councill, since which he has deliver'd to the Braminees as much Gold as (including allowance for wast in assay) amts to Pago 27 : 02 :—& there remaines Pago 9 : 14 : 2 which the Braminees demand, but hee refuses to make satisfaction for.

Att the melting of the Rt Honble Compas Gold from Tonqueen, the Same being near ready for casting off about noon, & I desired him to stay & see that the Gold had a true heat, which he understood better then I, But he told mee, he was invited to dinner, & upon So frivilous an acct did goe away, & left mee to see the Gold cast off, Att another time, would not stay with mee, att the melting of the Gold, because he said 'twas my duty.

Nor would he ever so much as one time make a compute of his own Assays, of the Rt Honble Compus Gold, which I desired him to do, that wee might compare our rateings, being loath to trust to my own, But all the assistance I have had from him, is, that he gives mee his Assays which sometimes Sais, the Gold is so many grains better, or worse then stã of England, sometimes so many grains better or worse then Pago mat, & leaves itt to mee to make what use I can of them. Wherein I confess I have been att a loss, & do not yet know how to compare them, with the Braminees Assays. Because Hee differs from himself $\frac{2}{5}$ of a grain in his compute of what Pago Matt is, and $\frac{1}{5}$ of a grain from the Braminees. Upon consideration whereof, I am apt to think that the differences, between his & the Braminees Assays, having usually been but $\frac{1}{4}$ gr or $\frac{1}{2}$ gr this mistake of his in the notion of Pago Matt, may have partly been the occation of those differences. For he asserts (as he has often done) that Pago Matt is $\frac{1}{5}$ gr worse then $8\frac{5}{8}$ & yet that 'tis $\overset{car}{20}\ \overset{gr}{iii}$. Now the Pago Matt of $8\frac{5}{8}$ being equall to $\overset{car}{20}\ \overset{gr}{ii}\ \frac{4}{5}$ exactly, then $\overset{car}{20}:\overset{gr}{iii}$ must bee $\frac{1}{5}$ gr better then $8\frac{5}{8}$ which is demonstrable, And I cannot see, how he can clear himself from a contradiction, otherwise then by acknowledging he mistook, & means that Pago matt, is $\frac{1}{5}$ gr better then $8\frac{5}{8}$.

And that is as great an absurdity. For itt is to bee taken for granted that $8\frac{5}{8}$ is as much the Matt of this Country, as 22 cart the Stã of England & to determine the Stã or Matt of any coyn, by the triall of one peice, or two (which may bee a little better or worse then itt ought) is nonsence.

But if Mr Johnson has discovered the Braminees Error in Pago matt & their cheats, or knows any methods whereby they may be detected, or prevented, what do's that signify, if he keeps his detections to himself? He being the proved person, sent out by the Rt Honble Compa to redress the abuses of the Braminees, why has he not made some demonstration, & proposall to your Honr & Councill?

as I have often desired him, but could never get any further Satisfaction from him, then a meer assertion that they are mistaken, & that they do cheat, with promises of drawing up Proposalls, for regulation of the Mint, which he never performed.

And I do suspect, as well from the occationall discourse, I have had with him, as from the Short answers, he gave your Hon^r & Councill when before you, either that he has not really made any considerable discoveries of the Bramines practices, or keeps itt to himself, out of a discontented humor, because he has not had the charge of the Mint committed entirely to himself, without any check or controul, only rendring acc^ts of the Mint, to your Hon^r & Councill, as he gives itt out that he has made some such contract in writing, with the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a (which writing was unfortunatly lost in the passage) & thereupon gave £5000 Security in England. Whereof the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a taking no notice, in any Generall to this place, and the writeing not being produceable, how can he expect, that the President and Councill should upon his bare word, alter the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as setled order, that one of the Councill, shall have charge, & render accom^ts of the Mint, and whilst that order continues, the person appointed thereunto, ought to inspect all Transactions in the Mint, as well as hee can both to satisfie himself in what's done, & to gain experience, which the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a have injoined all of the Councill to endeavour. I have therefore been as carefull as I can, to look into the Braminees actions, & if M^r Johnson bee affronted att that, I can't help itt, I know of no obstruction or discouragment he has rec^d from mee in his business. But he makes itt so to himself, in complaining that the Braminees Assays are beleived before his, & therefore he Signifies nothing, By which I suppose hee meanes that the Pagodas Should bee coyned by his Assays. Wherein hee do's not consider the Setled order of the Mint, which doubtless has been often taken into consideration both by the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a & their Servants here, but I suppose their Hon^rs have never given any order for altering itt, nor has M^r Johnson given any demonstration, that 'tis practicable, in this Country, where the Pagodas are to pass. In the meantime he may signify much, & do great service if he please, by overseeing the meltings of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Gold & being a check upon the Braminees assays.

Upon the whole, I humbly move itt to your Hon^r & Councill as an Expedient for the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Service, that if any Gold of theirs (which cannot be coined without him) do arrive before M^r Littleton's returne from Pettepollee, you will please to appoint some other person to take charge of the Mint, for he has so fixed an aversation [sic] to mee, & carries itt (all along) with so much scorn & crossenes, [sic] that wee can never doe the business well togeather, & yet he may be so farr Sensible of the inconveniencies of what's past, that when joined with another, hee may better comport with his business. But unless he will give due attendance (wherein he has greatly failed) See the meltings of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Gold, make Assays in due time, freely give his advice and assistance as occasion requires, (which I cannot expect he will do with me) the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a may suffer, either in the produce or dispatch of their Gold, & I may thereby run the hazard of my own ruin, thrô another mans fault.

Concerning the Sea Customes.

Notwithstanding the Rt Honble Compa have order'd only five p̃ Cent Custome inwards in kind to be paid att this place, There being already Six p̃ Cent paid in & out by the Portugues & Natives, wee think itt not convenient to alter that, they not being discontented att itt, & being more proffit to their Honrs but in respect of the said order, wee do now resolve that all English freemen, as well Inhabitants as traders to this place, do pay the said five p̃ Cent Vizt Two & a half p̃ Cent inwards, & Two & a half p̃ Cent outwards, which alteration wee make, because there are quantities of goods Shipt off, for Severall places, which in returnes they bring only money back, which paying no Custome, would bee a loss, if itt was not laid as well upon the Exportation as Importation, And that wee might appear to bee as industrious as possible, to raise the Rt Honble Compas Revenues in this place, Itt is order'd that their Honrs covenant servants themselves shall pay Three p̃ Cent Custome Vizt One & a half p̃ Cent outwards & One & a half p̃ Cent inwards & that all Commodities & all Sortes of Liquors of Europe & India, shall pay Custome, by all the forementiond, as expressed in the following Order.

Order how the Sea-Custome is to be paid.

To all English freemen Inhabitants of the Citty of Madras & other English freemen admitted to trade to and from this Port as also to the Rt Honble Compas covenant Servants.

Itt being of absolute necessity & the Rt Honble Compas possitive Commands, to levy such duties from the English freemen Inhabitants of this place (as also from all other English freemen that voyage from hence to any other Port, or that arrive here) as may defray their excessive charges & disbursement they have been att in fortfiying itt, and are forced to continue for maintaining the Same, & the Securing their persons & trade, & whereas the Said Rt Honble Compa have establish'd the said Customes or duty to be but five p̃ Cent for the said Inhabitants &ca to pay, wee judge itt to bee but just & moderate, & therefore we the President & Councill of Fort St George for the Said Rt Honble Compa doe hereby strictly enjoine & require you the English freemen &ca Inhabitants of Madras aforesaid to yeild all due obedience thereto, & punctually to pay the said duty att all times Vizt Two & a half p̃ Cent outwards & Two & a half p̃ Cent inwards, (and the Portugues & Natives to pay as before they have done) & because wee will not have the Rt Honble Compas covenant Servants themselves bee altogeather free from paying some part of this duty, wee do in the same manner require of them, that they and every of them do pay Three p̃ Cent Custome Vizt One & a half p̃ Cent outwards & One & a half p̃ Cent inwards And wee do hereby declare that no Sortes of Commodities or Liquors whatsoever (either of Europe or India) shall bee exempted from paying the above said duty, by English freemen &ca and the Rt Honble Compas Servants as above mentioned Dated in Fort St George the 13th day of June 1687 and Signed by us.

Concerning entring goods att the Custome house.

The Rt Honble Compa having ordered that this Custome house bee regulated as near as wee can to that in England wee have to the best of our judgments (not having recd any particular directions from their Honrs of the method) setled that & some other things as mention'd in the following order.

Order how goods are to be enter'd att the Custome house.

To all Merchants & Commanders or Masters of Ships or Vessells that trade to or from this Port of Madras, as also to the Inhabitants of the Same, & all passengers voyaging upon said Ships or Vessells:

[13TH.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, JUNE 1687.——

To the intent that the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^a^ may not in the least be defrauded of their Customes, as establish'd all Commanders or Masters of Ships or Vessells, att their first arrivall, are hereby order'd to enter at the Custome house, their own name, their Ships or Vessells names, burthen, Guns, number & names of the Europe Officers & Seamen & what passengers they have brought upon their Ship or Vessell, with their names, & from what place they came, as also to make a true entry or manifest of all the goods brought in the said Ship or Vessell, with their Markes, Numbers, & quallity, and to whom consigned, & then every Merchant to whom the said goods are consigned, is also hereby order'd to make entry of the particulars thereof & pay his Customes, to the Collector, who is to give his Warrant to the Land Waiters, for the delivery of the said goods, to whomsoever they belong.

In like manner itt is also hereby order'd that all Commanders or Masters of Ships or Vessells that are bound from hence, to any other Port do enter their Ship or Vessell with their own name, and Ships or Vessells name &c^a^ as aforesaid att their arrivall, and signifie therein to what place they are bound, & then all Merchants or passengers on the said Ships or Vessells, trading that way or to that place, are likewise order'd to make their particular entry of what goods they intend to lade on Said Ship or Vessell, & pay their Customes first (before water bound) to the Collector, who is to give them a Warrant to the Land Waiters for Shipping the same, but the said Merchants &c^a^ are first to put on the backside of their Warrant, the contents of their goods, with the Markes & Numbers, & when the Ship or Vessell is ready to depart, the Commander or Master thereof is hereby order'd to enter the true contents of all his Ship or Vessells lading, with the Markes & Numbers, and not to depart, till the said manifest be found to agree with the particular Warrants, given by the Collector, nor till they have given an acc^t^ to the said Collector, what Europe men, either Seamen or passengers they have aboard.

And further wee do hereby give notice to all persons to whom these Presents are directed, that if they shall bee found to make any false entries, they shall loose their former priviledge of trading, or bee fined as wee shall think fitt.

Wee do hereby also require all Commanders & Masters of Ships or Vessells, as also all passengers to repair to the Governour & give an acc^t^ from whence they came, & upon the departure of any Ship or Vessell wee do forbid all Commanders or Masters of Ships or Vessells to receive any person aboard (that belongs to or resides in this place) whether they are Seamen or passengers, without the Governours leave, nor are the said Commanders or Masters to depart this place, without the same, And wee do in like manner forbid any person whosoever (who belong to or reside in this place) to depart without leave of the said Governour, & whatsoever Commander, Master, Passenger or Inhabitant of this place, shall act contrary to this our order, wee do hereby declare them fineable att our pleasure, or they shall no longer enjoy the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ Indulgence of trade, but bee Sent home as persons not observing their Hon^rs^ Rules and Orders, by which meanes they are uncapable of the priviledges, granted to those, which do give due obedience thereto. Dated in Fort S^t^ George the 13^th^ day of June 1687 And Signed by us.

Concerning the not paying Custome for Paddy.

Taking into consideration the troubles of this Country, and the encrease of the Famine, so many daily starving round us for want of food, Itt is order'd for the incouragment of all people, to bring Paddy & Grain to this place, that for the present they pay no Custome, And that the poor may bee supplied, Itt is also order'd that none shall engross the same (more then for the expence of their own families) that they may have itt att the best hand for their money, as expressed in the following Order.

By the President & Councill
of Fort S^t^ George.

Order to permit Paddy to be brought in without Custome.

Notwithstanding the establish'd Customes upon all Commoditys wee do for the present exempt Paddy and all Sorts of Grain, from paying Custome, that all Merchants traders therein may bee encouraged to bring itt in greater quantities to this Port, And that the poor of this Town, may bee Supplied with the same for their money. Wee do hereby order, that no Merchant or others shall engross Paddy, or other Grain to himself (more then may bee sufficient for his family) by buying itt up in great quantities, to Sell itt out againe to the poor, att dear rates, whereby many not being able to compass itt, doe daily starve, to the great abuse & discredit of our Government. Dated in Fort S[t] George the 13[th] day of June 1687 And Signed by us.

Order'd that the three foregoing Orders bee put up att the Fort Gate, Sea Gate, and Choultry Gate in English, and the two latter, in Portugues, Gentue, Persian and Mallabar, that no person may pretend ignorance of the same. The three foregoing orders to be put up att the Gates.

There being only M[r] John Heathfeild & M[r] Joseph Hiller, att present assistants to the Sea Customer Itt is order'd that M[r] John Pitt M[r] Zouch Troughton & M[r] Samuell Owen bee added instead of M[r] Hiller, the business there being much larger upon this new alteration, then formerly. Persons added to the Sea side & Mr. Hiller put out.

Order'd that Pag[o] 1000 bee paid M[r] Thomas Wavell Paymaster Gen[ll] to defray the Charges Garrison &c[a] And Pag[o] 600 to M[r] John Cheney Storekeeper Generall to defray Charges of the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] Sloops &c[a]. P 1000 to be paid Mr. Wavell. P 600 to be paid Mr. Cheney.

Mrs. Minchin delivers a Petition to go to Siam. The answer thereto.

Mrs Minchin delivers her Petition (as enter'd next after this Consultation) wherein she urges the necessity of her going to Siam to her husband, to which wee can say no more then formerly wrot both to the Directore & her the 14th Inst that wee cannot consent to her going, & that the Directore be again advised of the same, also acquainting her of the many inconveniencies that would attend her going to a place, the Rt Honble Compa were att Warrs with, & from whence by his Majesties & their order, wee had recal'd all English, & therefore advised her stay here where she should find all due civilities and assistance.

Mr Johnson sent for. A question put to him. Declares he knows nothing. A severe check given him.

According to Mr Higginson's desire in his reply to Mr Johnson's paper (wherein said Johnson charges him with jugling with the Bramines) wee sent for said Johnson, & required him to give us a particular acct if he knew in what Mr Higginson had wronged the Rt Honble Compa in during his being in the Mint, & what he meant by the word jugling, to which he declared he knew nothing, so that itt plainly appears to be only a malitious suggestion, for which he had a severe check.

Madras ffrigat to go to the Southward for Paddy. Afterwards to the West Coast.

Order'd that the Madras Frigat be sent to the Southward for Paddy & Grain, and afterwards when the Monsoon shall Serve, that she goe to the West Coast, with what wee can provide of those things they desire.

Capt Wetwang desires some Cordage for use of his Ship. To be spared att Invoyce price.

Capt Wetwang having desired us to spare him some Cordage, for the use of his Ship Royall James, Itt is order'd that he have what he has occation for, att the Invoyce price, & althô he complaines of the dearness & badness of itt, & was very urgent with us to make an abatement, yet wee could not lett him have itt under, thô wee Judge there might bee some reason for itt, being really very ordinary Stuff, & dear, being charg'd much higher then the Europe Ships usually sell att.

Guns to be continued aboard the Royall James till her returne from the Southward.

In regard that wee are willing to dispatch the Royall James to the Southward for Rice, with all the expedition possible, & that to take out the Guns, she brought from the West Coast, & put in ballast, would take up too much time, Itt is order'd that they bee continued aboard till her returne from thence.

A Lodg house to [sic] built for the Souldiers free from duty.

Itt being much to bee feared that the King of Gulcondah, cannot hold out long, & that when the Mogull comes to have the posession of this Country, wee have great reason to beleive that hee will endeavour, to revenge himself upon us, as he threatens, there being Warr declared in Bengall by us, and (as wee hear) on their Side also, therefore itt is thought very necessary & convenient, to build a Lodghouse, over against our Fortgate, (where formerly were the Stable & other old buildings, which the great Storm blew down) for the Souldiers free from duty to lodg in, that they may bee all within our walls, to bee ready upon occation, and att each end a Prison for Souldiers that offend, and that said building bee Tarras't att top, by reason if Tiled, being so near the Fort, under the Guns, itt would bee continually wanting repairs.

Chitty men desire their fine may be taken off. Agreed not to take itt off. No fine exceeding P 10 to bee awarded by any single Justice.

Whereas the Chitty men were fined Pago 100 for opressing the poor by shutting up their Shops, & selling Grain privatly in the night, by small measures & att a dear rate, whereby the said poor greatly suffer'd, & notwithstanding the Said Chittee men, made their complaints to us, to take off the said fine, yet considering the greatness of the fault, wee agree not to do itt, & gave them a severe check, telling them withall, that if they did so againe, they should be fined three times so much, And 'tis order'd that no fine exceeding ten Pago shall bee awarded, by any single justice, but by att least three of them, that all things therein may bee duly weighed and considered.

Concerning Factors & writers animosities one to another.

Some of the Councill having made complaint to us, that they have observed severall of the Factors & Writers, to have great animosities one against the other, & that generally they carry itt very proudly & disrespectfully towards them, & they have informed us, of severall disorders that some of them have been guilty of, particularly in stricking & challenging one another, wee therefore this day, sent for all the said Factors & Writers, & such as wee found guilty of said misdemeanors, wee set fines upon them for example to the rest, & instructed all to live in amity & respectfully one with another, in their severall degrees & stations, using many arguments to convince them, of the inconveniencies of the contrary course, & because wee are resolved to keep a good & orderly Government, & that every one shall pay a due respect, to their Superiors, & particularly the Factors & Writers to any & even the lowest of the Councill, Wee do agree and order that if any of the said Councill, find themselves disrespected or afronted by either the Factors & Writers that they may immediatly confine them to their Chambers, & order them to have nothing, but Rice & water till they have submitted themselves, & acknowledged their fault, both to us & them, as wee have now declared publickly to all the Said Factors & Writers, that they may bee inexcusable if they shall hereafter offend as before.

Portugues procure a Phirmaund for St Thomá for themselves. They Sneak away to St Thomá. [They] advance a Standard for a Flag to be hoisted. Their grandure Stopt & Flag staff lower'd

The Rt Honble Comps having in their former Generall Letter to us of the 14th of Janury 1685 possitivly order'd the renting of St Thomá Towne from the Duan, but being satisfied itt would raise many scruples & difficulties in them, or att least inhaunce the rent If we appeared in itt, or treated about itt ourselves, or in the Rt Honble Compas name, Itt was therefore then thought most prudent & convenient, that Chinna Vencatadry undertook the business in his own name, as formerly he & Verona had done, which would make less discourse & noise, & accordingly the President & Councill gave him an order under their hands for the Same, which as he tells us, he has been ever since treating about, but that the late & present warrs & troubles in the Country, had thus long obstructed & delayed the conclusion, though in the mean time some of our Portugues Inhabitants since our demanding Taxes, & advance of the Customes, have privatly negotiated this matter by one of their Padrees att Gulcondah, who procured them a Phirmaund for their resettlement & trade in the Country, & since that and the news of the Mogulls Success against Gulcondah, with the probabillity of his coming or Sending hither, & our danger thereby, have privatly, basely & ungratefully Sneakt away to St Thomá, & there been treating with the Seer Lascar &ca Governours to take a Lease of St Thomá Government, & there to ffortifie & hoist their Flag, which they thought themselves Soe Secure of that they had advanced their Standard, when the President sending away to the Braminee Governour of these parts about itt, & to mind him of his promise thereof to Chinna Vencatadry, with a promise of a gratuity, their grandure was immediatly Stopt, & their Flagstaff lower'd & ever since greatly discouraged, which we hope will continue to their return hither with Shame & sorrow for their vain expence.

——FORT St. GEORGE, JULY 1687.—— [26TH.]

Itt is therefore agreed & order'd that Chinna Vencataary do so prosecute the business as to disappoint them, though wee pay Something more for itt, then they offer, which wee doubt not in time to recover from them, besides'tis of Such absolute necessity to rent that Town, as well for preventing the deminishing our trade & customes, as also our force, five parts of our Souldiers being Portugues Topasses, who if they should Settle att St Thomá would certainly run thether from us, in our necessity.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, JULY 1687.—— [29TH.]

Last years Books being by a former order still kept open, to adjust the Subordinate Factorys accompts with ours, 'tis now order'd that they be carried on to the last of July, that the Rt Honble Compa may know the remaines of last Presidency, & what Stock this has to begin upon, & that all Stores & remains be exactly & punctually taken & examined & that Coodaloor & Conimeer Factorys ballance their Books att the Same time, & Metchlepatam, Madapollam & Pettepollee to conclude their books when they leave the place, & that a List of their remaines, Stores, Househouldstuff &a with their true vallue be taken & brought us.

Last years books to be carried on to the last of this month. The reasons for itt. Coodaloor & Conimeer the same time. Metchlepatam &ca till leaveing the factorys.

Order'd that the Second & Warehouskeeper do consider what goods are ready att Coodaloor, & what more fitting to bee sent.

To be consider'd what goods to send to Coodaloor.

The Rt Honble Compa in their Generall having complained of their great charge in keeping two Tables, which was chiefly occationed by President Gyffords indisposition, the Fort being always unhealthfull to him, necessitated his living att the Garden, which he found to agree with him much better, & though the Councill do Suppose and beleive that the Rt Honble Compa do still retain a good esteem & respect for him & his Services, yet in obedience to their Honrs orders wee cannot presume to continue that charge, & President Gyfford disireing to excuse his coming to the Fort, & to continue att the Garden during his short stay in India, 'tis thought fitt & order'd to bee allowed him Pago 25 p̃ month for his diett while here, with a Suitable number of Peons, & other Servants.

Rt Honble Compa complain of the charge of two Tables. Not to be continued.

P 25 p̃ month for diet to bee allowed President Gyfford.

The disposall of our Shipping to the Bay & Priaman & other places were discourst of, as also the Factors, but the resolves thereon, is deferred till another time.

Disposall of the Shipping defer'd.

There being 280 Peons in pay for the Watch & Guard of the Suburbs, who in the disorder they are scatter'd about bee of little credit or force to the place, the Governour therefore form'd them into three regular Companies, each two divissions of Musquets, & one of Lances, their Commanders & most of the Officers English Natives of the Town, each Company to march under a Redd Beteelae Ensign, & each morning to mount their Guards in the Citty & from thence to bee devided & orderd to their Severall Posts, where they are to keep their Watch that, day & night, & to bee releived next day by a fresh company, & they to give their attendance att the Fort, & for the encouragment of the Officers tis order'd that thir pay have a Small advance, & that they exercise & drill the Peons twice a week, which will make them formidable & Servicable upon occation. The President also propos'd the calling the Portugues Inhabitants to armes, & that the Factors & Writers bee drawn up, into an Artillery company once a week, & that the Gentue & Moors Inhabitants do according to their abillity rais a Traindband of Peons, but this deferr'd to further consideration.

Peons form'd into three regular Companys. Commanders & most of the officers English Natives. Officers pay to have a small advance.

Proposition about the Portugues Factors, Writers, Gentues, & Moors but deferr'd.

Concerning the Warr with Siam.

In pursuance of the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{as} former orders about their Warr with the King of Siam, to get satisfaction for the wrongs & injuries done them by his Minister of State Constant Phaulkon Commissions were given out to Severall of our Ships for the Seizing of theirs, also two of our Frigats, the Curtana & James, under command of Cap^{t} Anthony Weltden, with 40 Souldiers well arm'd & equip'd, Commanded by Lievtenant Mason, were sent the 5th of June last directly to Tenasseree, with his Majesty of Englands Royall Proclamation for the recalling his Subjects from the Service of forreign Princes, with our Commission to Said Cap^{t} Weltden to publish the Same in Tenasseree, as also Severall Letters from the President & Councill to the King of Siam, to inform him of our agreivances from his Said Minister Phaulkon, which wee had often represented in Severall humble remonstrances, but were as often intercepted by him, And that there was no way left us, to make him sencible of our injuries but a Warr, which had no other end but to redress our wrongs, & should bee ended as Soon as the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{a} were righted; Letters, Declarations & Summons, were also sent to M^{r} Samuell White, M^{r} Burneby &c^{a} English to call them hither, according to the authority of Said Royall Proclamation, which if they disobey'd Cap^{t} Weltden was to Protest against them, in the Kings & his R^{t} Hon^{ble} Comp^{as} names, & after that to commit all the hostillity he could, either by taking their Ships, or Seizing any thing on the place, & to bring all hither, with a just accompt thereof, by the first oppertunity of the Monsoons, which may bee the beginning of December next, and thus farr wee proceeded in the Siam affair.

What formerly order'd concerning itt.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, AUGUST 1687.——

Concerning the Warr with Syam.

But his Gracious Majesty having been pleased to grant and issue forth another more ample Proclamation, for the recalling his Subjects, from the King of Siam's Service &c[a] Also his particular letter & command to M[r] Samuell White & M[r] Richard Burneby to return from that Service, or to Surrender the place to his Subjects, for the use of the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a]. But this Letter being unfortunatly carried in our Packett by the Bengall Merchant to Surat, from whence wee cannot expect itt, time enough to Send to Mergeu this Monsoon, or before Cap[t] W[e]ltden leaves that place, & having well perused & considered the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] orders to us in their Letters of the 22[th] October, & 10[th] Janu[ry] 1686 and weighed them with the present circumstances of our Bengall troubles & too great likelihood of a Warr with the Mogull here, as also that the French, have Sent Six men of Warr to Siam, with Souldiers Armes &c[a] for that Kings assistance & service, & that the French Ship lately arrived att Pollicherry from France, is suddenly design'd for Tenasseree; from whence having consider'd all conveniencies & inconveniencies, as well as time will permit, 'Tis agreed & resolved that the Pearle Frigat bee immediatly dispatch'd to Tenasseree with 19 Souldiers, And M[r] William Hodges to bee joyned in Commission with Cap[t] Anthony Weltden Commander of the Curtana, already there, & that they present & publish his Majesties Royall Proclamation to M[r] White M[r] Burneby & all the English on the place, And that a Generall bee wrot from the Governour &c[a] acquainting them with his Royall Majestys letter, of command to them, & to press them to obedience, & to Surrender the Forts of Tenasseree & Mergeu, to the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] for Satisfaction of the damages the King of Siam, & his Subjects has done them, as also to disappoint the Dutch & French, who will certainly take them if wee do not, And that the originall Generall Letter from the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] of the 10[th] January 1686 Signed by the Deputy Governour S[r] Benjamin Bathurst, be delivered to Said M[r] William Hodges, to shew to M[r] White & M[r] Burneby, if there bee occation, to confirm them of the truth of his Majesties Letter & command to them, as also the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] good instances & reasons for their compliance & obedience, & to assure them of his Majesties & the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] favourable acceptance thereof, & of our giving them employments here Suitable to their Qualifications. But if these offers are Slighted & his Majesties Letter & Proclamation bee disobey'd, then in the Kings name to pronounce them Rebells, And with the 60 Souldiers formerly & now sent them, besides the Seamen of the three ffrigats, with what English & other Forces they can get there, First to call a Councill of Warr, & if they think themselves able, & of Sufficient force, to attacque & maintain the place, to assault itt, & if they carry itt, to hoist his Majesties Flag, and posess, and Fortifie the place, with their Souldiers & Seamen, & as many Guns as they can spare from their Vessells, only sending us one ffrigat, as soon as possibly hither, with their advices & plunder, that we may send them recruits, But to bee very considerate in this affair, remembring the great supplies of ffrench, lately arrived att Siam, though wee are the more desirous now of having Mergeu, to prevent the Dutch & French therein, who will make itt of great prejudice to us and our trade.

A Frigat to be sent hither with advices.

Dollars 4000 to be laden on the Pearle Frigat. How to be disposed of.

Order'd that 4000 R[ll] $\frac{8}{8}$ bee sent on the Pearle ffrigat to Tenasseree to supply the occations of our people, if they settle there, or if they do not, then to buy Rice &c[a] provissions in the ajacent parts to lade the three Vessells hither, which will greatly alleviate their charge, as also Supply our necessities.

Concerning affairs in Bengall.

Having had no advices from Bengall Since the 28th ffebruy last of their proceedings & present state of the Rt Honble Compas great affairs there, only from the doubtfull reports, of the French, Dutch, & Portugues, that they are Settled on the Island of Ingerlee, that they have sackt & burnt Ballasore, & taken severall Moors Ships, which has so enraged the Government, that they appear more averse to an accommodation then ever, ffortifying att Hugly, Ballasore &ca & bringing down considerable forces against ours, that our people have had a great mortallity, & in no good agreement & understanding among themselves, considering which, as also our own condition, & that wee have Spared them, what Forces we are able leaving our Garrison, but two Companies of Souldiers, whereof not above twenty English (excepting these 50 now arrived) & the Topasses but raw poor creatures, such as wee could pick up from all parts, all which are much too few for the Security of the place, as a Garrison ought to bee guarded in common times, & much more to dispute the Mogulls forces, who will trouble us as certain as he lives, & not to be diverted but by his death, so much & often has he declared his enmity & resolutions against us, which are Since heightned & exasperated by the agravated reports of our hostillity in the Bay, upon his Subjects. And the Warr being so resolutly maintained against us, by our Enemies in Bengall, there can little or no trade bee expected from them only what may bee under covert of other Nations, & that but very inconsiderable, all Europeans (especially our trecherous friends the Dutch who have been very advising & active in these mischiefs) will for their own ends and interest, rather obstruct then assist us, they also having had great supplies & little thereof imploy'd in trade, as first their remaines, next the Rochesters Cargo, then what sent hence by the Beaufort & Nathaniell, also by the Berkely Cattle [sic] &ca from the West Coast, all which amounts to near £ [Lacuna in the original] and having often considered & debated the foregoing circumstances wee are now come to this resolution, And first that our weakness & necessity here, can spare them no more supplies of men, then allready sent, which are too many, considering our eminent occation & danger; But Ship Williamson being in a good condition, with a large, healthy, stout crew of Seamen, 'Tis order'd that she be forthwith dispatcht to the Bay, for their assistance & supply, as also the Resolution, if she arrives time enough, who may bee as much serviceable to them, as all the Souldiers they leave in our Garrison, By her wee agree to send them 60,000 Dollars with Stores, Armes & what necessary comforts wee can spare them, with orders to make what Investment they can, which if they can by no meanes effect, then to return us what they can well spare, in the beginning of December next, upon two or three fitting Ships, whose Charterparty time, are nearest expiration, & that they lade on them, what Saltpeetre they have or can procure, as also their remaines, and prize goods propper for Europe, & that one of them touch att Vizagapatam, to take in the goods they shall have provided there, another to call att Kisnapatam to bring away the Salt from thence, & two of these Ships to take in Some more bale goods here, if there shall bee occation, & proceed directly for Bencoolen, to compleat their ladings with Pepper for England, And that the other Ship, with the Dragon, expected from Persia, whose time will bee expired, bee if possibly laden & dispatcht from hence directly for England, & for the remaining Ships they must bee consider'd of in their due Season, & wee hope the Almighty will provide for them & us, And that a ffactor & two writers bee Sent for the Service of the Bay, And that the Lists of Bay goods, bee coppied & sent them; And that Mr Griffith bee dismist the Rt Honble Compas Service, & what elce order'd by the Rt Honble Compa encharged to them.

Order'd also that they lade what grain &c[a] provissions they can procure from the Bay, & if possible to the filling up the three ships they shall send us, the famine being still very Severe here, & all sorts of grain & provissions, excessive Scarce and dear, But if their troubles & Warr prevent their provission thereof, then to dispatch two of the three Ships, as early as possibly to Vizagapatam, or rather Pundemarke, thirty Leagues to the Northward, that being the plentifullest Port for Grain, & wee shall order our Chief &c[a] there, to make provission for them, either for the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] acc[t] or upon freight.

MUNDAY 8.

Concerning the Settlement on the West Coast. Why not Settled att Priaman.

Having often considered & debated upon the R[t] Hon[ble] Companys Settlement & affairs on the West Coast of Sumatra, as also their Severall arguments & orders thereon, in their Generall to us, & more particularly upon that unhappy error, of not settling first att Priaman, according to our intention, & agreement with the Lords, and Governours of those parts, which M[r] Ord &c[a] had sufficient orders for, & might have been well effected, notwithstanding the Dutch their presettlement, or the lateness of that Monsoon, had Cap[t] Francis Willshaw followed the orders given him by us & them, but his disputes & aversion to the voyage, when here, with an ambition of raising a fame to himself, by a new Settlement, as by his Letter of [Lacuna in the original] to M[r] Benjamin Bloome, when att Bencoolen, where he threatens & declares no less, also M[r] Ords letter to the President, complaining of the Same, & that by his perversness, they were necessitated to settle where they did, nor would he go hence without some liberty was given, (if they could not reach Priaman) to Settle elce where, to discharge his Ship of the numerous passengers, that disturb'd & pester'd him, which he alledg'd he had not sufficient water, nor accommodation for long, they also shaped the course of their voyage here, telling us they must of necessity make the North head of Sumatra, or 'twas not possible to fetch Priaman, which wee could not contradict, being Forced by Capt. Willshaws perversness to settle where they did.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, AUGUST, 1687.—— [8TH.].

more their charge & profession then ours, though itt proved an unfortunate mistake, Thus much wee (then of Councill) write only to Satisfie our R^t^ Hon^ble^ Masters of the truth of the action, & not to sully the memory or disturb the ashes of that worthy Commander; But the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^a^ have taken such care in their Charterparties, as will prevent the like mistakes for the future.

What before writ of the West Coast to Satisfie the Rt Honble Compa.

Our last advices from Bencoolen & Indrapoora, was [sic.] of Dec^r^, February & June, p̃ the Royall James & Rose Frigat, when M^r^ Bloom writes us, that the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ affairs go on more currantly, & have greater hopes of a prosperous Settlement then ever, by the favour & assistance of a powerfull King, called Jenapatwan, lately come from the inland parts thether, in kindness to our Settlem^t^ & revenge to the Dutch, who he Saies has greatly disobliged him, promising to Settle us well, & securely, in what port of the Island wee please, provided wee furnish him with Shipping for their transport & guard, they also write us of the dispatch of the Rainbow the 29^th^ March last with a Cargo of Pepper for England, and that they have near 700 Bahar by them, & about 50000 Dollars, which they hoped to invest in Pepper, itt daily coming in by meanes of this new Kings great authority, But that the place was still extreamly unhealthy, having buried near [Lacuna in the original] out of [Lacuna in the original] brought thether by the Herbert, James & Berkeley Castle, & that there was none but himself alive of the Councill, & but [Lacuna in the original] Souldiers, & most of them sick & weak, & few or none left of the numerous company of black people & Artificers of all Sorts, carried with them, by the Resolution & Defence, & that they were in great want of Supplys & Assistants.

Advices from the West Coast. By the assistance of Jeanapatwan affairs go on more currantly there.

Rainbow dispatcht thence for England the 29th March last.

[700] Bahar of Pepper and 5000 Dollars by them.

Great morallity att Bencoolen among the Souldiers.

From Indrapoora they advise us, of a great mortallity among the rest M^r^ Potts & M^r^ duJardin, however that the place is much healthier, then Bencoolen, but all allow Priaman to exceed both for Scituation & trade, but that those parts afford more Pepper, that they greatly want accommodation for themselves, & goods to defend them from the danger of Enemies & weather, That the Dutch had landed a great number of Dutchmen, & Buggeses Souldiers there who threatned ruin to the Emperour, if our people were not turn'd off the place, but the luckey arrivall of the Royall James, dispersed them all; M^r^ Thomas Stubbs who was sent on Said Ship to Manduta, to provide pepper, where he procured no more, then Bahar 33½ with which they came hither, with their Indrapoora Stock, of 2 Chests of Silver, & 51 Bales of Cloth, the Ship having lost 70 of her men, & the rest arrived here, in a poor weak condition, They advise the Berkeley Castle was att Indrapoora, where they intended to keep her some time, for a guard Ship, but the Priaman Frigat arriving, wee suppose they dispatcht the Berkeley Castle, to the Bay as order'd, and though they write nothing of itt, M^r^ Stubbs tells us that they took out the greatest part of her Treasure, att Indrapoor[a,] though M^r^ Bloom att Bencoolen, had consign'd itt to the Bay, so that att both places, they have a considerable Stock for the provission of Pepper.

Mortallity att Indrapoora. Much healthier then Bencoolen. Priaman exceeds both. Want of accommodation att Indrapoora. Dutchmen and Buggeses Souldiers landed. Dispersed by the Royall James. What brought from Manduta on the Royall James. Berkeley Castle att Indrapoora. Priaman Frigat arriving Suppose she is gone to the Bay. Treasure taken out att Indrapoora. Considerable Stock at both places.

Upon consideration of the foregoing advices, as also of our present circumstances, both here & att the Bay, wee do agree & resolve as followeth Viz^t^.

Consideration of the foregoing advices. Two Frigats to be dispatcht to the West Coast. What Cargo to be laden on them.

That the Nugdee the prize Ship taken by the Dragon now call'd the Success ffrigat, & the Madras ffrigat, be immediatly dispatcht to Bencoolen & Indrapoora, with a Stock of 48,000 R^lls^ ⅝ all the Surat black & white Baftaes, brought here by the Loyall Adventure from Mindanao the 51 Bales of black & white Long Cloth & Sallampores, by mistake return'd from Indrapoora & Manduta upon the Royall

[8TH.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, AUGUST, 1687.——

To be order'd to provide Pepper for two or three great Ships.

James, also what of the Surat prise goods are propper for those Marketts, & that with this & their former Stock, they bee order'd to provide all the pepper they possibly can, to be in readiness for the two or three great Ships wee shall send them in December or January next, which they must certainly expect, & therfore to use their utmost endeavours not to fail us therin. That on these two Ships bee also Sent them, all the Factors Writers or any other English, wee can encourage, perswade or press to go, by reason of their great want there, though we hope the supply on the Priaman Frigat stands good & well, also that one hundred Slaves bee sent them on both Ships they being by the famine, extreamly cheap, also many by us, & that as many handicrafts, & Peons do go, as wee can prevail with, & rather then fail, to give them more then ordinary encouragm^{t}. And that the two Vessells ladings bee compleated with bricks, tyles palmeiras, reepers, &c^{a} necessaries for building, the want of w^{ch} wee beleive has been the chief occation of their Sickness, that they have been often advised thereof, That also be Sent them what stores & provissions, wee can Spare or procure in the Short time of their Stay, itt being of absolute necessity, to hasten their dispatch, as well for the advantage of an early Monsoon, as that they may have sufficient time, for the provission of so great a quantity of Pepper, as our Ships will require, The warehouskeeper, Paymaster & Storekeeper, are therefore order'd to expedite all things in their charges, towards the dispatch of the Success & Madras ffrigats, for the West Coast of Sumatra. That M^{r} Bloom &c^{a} may have liberty to keep these two vessells, for their Service & Guard, or send them back to us laden with Pepper.

Factors &ca to be Sent on them.

100 slaves to be sent on dto. Also Handicrafts and Peons.

Bricks, Tyles &ca. to be sent.

Also stores and provisions. Necessity of hastening the said Frigats dispatch. Warehousekeeper, &ca. order'd to expedite all things. Mr. Bloom &ca. to have liberty to keep said Two Frigats.

Present to be provided for the West Coast.

Orderd that the Present bee provided & Sent to the new Emperour M^{r} Bloom desires, Viz^{t} a Quittasol with Silver & a Diamond Ring.

Leaden Pettys coyned att Bencoolen. Copper Cash to be sent them. How much to be vallued att.

Whereas M^{r} Benjamin Bloom advises from Bencoolen, that the great King lately come down thether, had order'd the coyning of Leaden Pettys to go amongst the English, & promises to call them in, when the English shall Send another Coyn thether, therefore to prevent itt growing to a Custome. 'Tis agreed & order'd (copper being very cheap now in Town) that four or five Candy be bought and coyned into Cash, of Twenty to a ffanam, which is Fifty to a Ryall, and four hundred to a Dollar, which may bee of great help to the Souldiers there, they having yet no Less pieces of Coyn of ours them[sic] Silver Ryalls, which occations provissions & other things to bee dearer to them, then otherwise 'twould bee, had they lesser Coyn, The Inscription thereon to be the R^{t} Hon^{ble} Companys mark on the one Side, and on the reverse the English Company in Arrabeck Characters, and that there be as many made, as possible can bee, before the departure of the Ships for the West Coast.

May be of great help to the Souldiers. The Inscription on said Cash.

Mr. Johnston to hasten the Stamps for Silver coynes.

And that M^{r} James Johnson the Assay Master doe hasten the Stamps for Silver Coynes as formerly order'd him.

M[R] NATH HIGGINSON	M[R] WILLIAM FRASER.

The Councill sent for most of the R[t] Hon[ble] Companys Servants that could bee spared, also some freemen, to discours and order their going to Sumatra, by the Success & Madras ffrigats, to whom was used all the arguments, & encouragments wee could think of Representing the necessity & danger, the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a]s affairs were under in those parts for want of assistants, to carry on a business which was of great import to them, & the Nation, and that their Covenants & duties, oblidge them to obedience, in what we judg'd necessary to order them, They were also promised a considerable encrease of their Sallarys, & that wee would provide them all convenient necessarys they could desire, And would send materialls & order the building commodious houses, fitting for Lodging & business, to Secure them from the heats & rains, the want whereof wee beleive, hath been the great occation of the loss of So many there, But all wee could say, could not prevail with any to go, upon these Ships, but M[r] Rich[d] Knipe who is particularly obliged thereto, by his Covenants, The rest makeing Severall evasive excuses for their going att present, but promise fairly for the future, But all in generall both Factors, Soldiers & Natives have a great aversion thereto, by reason of the unhealthiness of the place which from the many late bills of mortallity thence, deters them from adventuring their lives, And to force them, we have neither order nor inclination, since there can bee little good expected from compulsive Service if wee have not their hearts, their hands will be of little use, & wee are still in hopes to bee yet successfull with Some, before the departure of the Ships, But the following persons being recommended by the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] to Serve them att the West Coast, were more particularly discoursed thereon Viz[t].

Sundry persons discourst about going to Sumatra. Argumts & encouragments used. Obliged by duty to obedience. Encrease of their sallary promised. None could be prevail'd with to go.

Mr. Knipe obliged by Covenants.

All persons averse to going.

No order nor inclination to force them to go.

Hopes to be succesfull with some before the departure of the Ships.

Persons recommended by the Rt. Honble Comp to go discourst

M[r] John Cheney late of this Councill, & of a long Standing and experience att Bantam, & the Pepper trade, & perfect in the Malay language, was much desired to go Dep[ty] Governour of the West Coast (M[r] Benjamin Bloom often desiring to return) and that he should have all the encouragment, wee could give him therein, as also the great Sallary appointed to that imploy, he being in our opinions the fittest person wee have to Send therein, But he gave us for answer, That the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] having entertain'd a displeasure against him, he knew not upon what occation, & doub[t]ed they would displace him thence too, & therefore desired to be excused going, till he heard their further pleasure concerning him, having sent them a full & just acc[t] of his voyage to Mindanao, which when they were satisfied in, he was ready to serve them, where they or we pleas[ed].

Mr. John Cheney discourst. His answer given thereto.

M[r] William Cawley also desired to bee excused going, now, by reason he had wrot for, & expected his wife by next Ships, & that his concerns was abroad on voyages, & little left to carry with him.

Mr. William Cawley discourst he excuses going.

And M[r] Moody requested our forbearance till next oppertunity for that upon his being order'd for Persia, upon Ship Dragon, he had carried all his concernes with him, but going aboard the prize Ship, (they had taken) they were by stress of weather parted from the Dragon, & forced hither, without so much as Cloths or necessarys, but that he would readily go, by the first oppertunity after the Dragons arrivall, which we every day expecting excuse him till then, But upon the whole matter we find 'twill bee very difficult to get any to go to the West Coast, from hence, att least not sufficient for the business there, and that the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^a^ bee advised thereof, as also to send servants directly from England thether, or under Covenants to go from hence.

Mr. Moody excuses going for the present.

P 300 to be sent to Conimeer.

Orderd that Pag^o^ 300 be Sent by M^r^ John Willcox to Conimeer Factory, having run in debt Some months for their expences.

Mr Nicks accepts the Chiefship of Coodaloor. His going thether not to deprive him of the Chiefship of Madapollã.

M^r^ John Nicks brought his answer to the Councill, that since wee thought fitt to appoint him the charge of Coodaloor Factory he Submitted thereto, and that itt should bee his greatest care, to mannage all things to the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Company's advantage, & satisfaction, But desired that his going thether, might not deprive him of the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Company's kindness, in ordering him Chief of Madapollam, which the Councill assured him, should bee att his choice, when wee resettled there.

Rec[d] a Letter from Cap[t] Andrews being an acc[t] of his proceedings att Mocho. 22. Letter from Capt Andrews.

Commission & Instructions to the Worp[ll] William Hodges Esq[r], Cap[t] Anthony Weltden M[r] John Hill & Cap[t] James Perriman for their negotiation att Tenasseree. Coppy Commission & Instructions to Mr Hodges &ca.

Since our late Commission to Cap[t] Anthony Weltden, bearing date the 31[st] May 1687 is arrived by Ship Williamson from England fresh & more possitive orders from the R[t] Hon[ble] East India Comp[a] for the prosecuting their Warr against the King of Siam & his Subjects, for wrongs & injuries done them by his Ministers, for which his Majesty the King of England has given them full power & authority, & they are resolved to take due satisfaction before they will recall their forces, or grant any tearmes of peace, His Majesty hath also issued forth, his Royall Proclamation for the recalling all his Subjects from the Service of forreign Princes & expressly from the King of Siams, & thô we hope all English in those parts have been So wise & Loyall, as already to have paid their obedience to his late Majesties Royall Proclamation for that purpose, Yet least some should be obstinate & rebellious, we have sent this Second Proclamation to command their repair hither, which you are to read & publish with the greatest Solemnity & honour you can, & after to Summon all the English in Mergen [sic] or Tenasseree and all other places within the Said Kings Dominions, or elcewhere particularly by name, & if they comply not therewith, then you are to Protest against them, in the name of his Royall Majesty King James the Second, & in behalf of his R[t] Hon[ble] East India Company, and to declare & denounce them Rebellious Subjects, to their King & Country & that they are accountable to the penall Laws of England, when & wherever they shall bee taken under their Jurisdiction, & proceeded against accordingly, for their heinous contempt, And more expresly Mr Richard Burneby & M[r] Samuell White Governours in those parts for the King of Siam, who having the dispose & command of many English, under them, may by their power & Interest perswade to good or ill, as themselves are inclin'd His Majesty the King of England was therefore pleased to Send his express commands to them, in his Letter, by Ship Bengall Merchant, which was dispatcht early from England, with Supplies for Bombay, & designed thence hither, But the Monsoons being farr Spent, wee cannot expect her this Season, nor our Packetts time enough to send to Tenasseree, Therefore to assure & confirm them in the truth of Said Letter, the President &c[a] have wrote to Mess[rs] Burneby and White thereon, But least they should question that too, we herewith deliver you coppy of the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] Generall, of the 10[th] January also severall clauses of their Generall of the 22[nd] October, Attested by us, which if you find occation, you may Shew to M[r] White & M[r] Burneby, or to whom elce you think fitt, which wee hope will fully satisfie & confirm them of the truth, & reallity of his Majesties letter to them, as also of his & the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] respects therein, & good opinion of them, & intentions to promote them in their Service, which you may assure them of, & that all others upon their arrivall here, shall have suitable employments to their capacities, which kindness wee hope will perswade them to their duty in Surrendring & securing Mergen, for the R[t] Hon[ble] Companies posession, & the generall good of the English Nation, rather then lett itt fall into the hands of the French or Dutch, who (if wee have itt not) will bee certainly Masters of itt, & we ever excluded from all trade & benefitts, as also from the necessary conveniency of repairing & fitting our Ships there, which arguments pray press to Mr White & Mr Burneby &ca English, who if they have any sence of Loyalty to our King, love to our Country or honr to themselves, will soon bee perswaded to their duty, in a Soon surrender, & maintenance of the place.

But if these our reasons, & kind offers are rejected & slighted by them, & that they disobey his Majesties Royall Letter & Proclamation, & oppose your posessing the place, then wee order you to call a Councill of Warr, of your Chief Officers & after a Serious debate and due consideration upon their Strength & condition, & your own force to assault & maintaine the place, to which if you find things agreable, & your Selves able, then to Attack & take the place, which done you must hoist his Majesty's Flag, & posess & fortifie with your Souldiers & Seamen, and as many Guns, as you can spare from your Vessells, only sending one Frigat as Soon as possibly hither, with your advices, prisoners & plunder, & by the first conveniency after their arrivall, we Shall send you what recruits of men, amunition, Stores &ca you desire & we can well Spare.

But we would have you very considerate in this affair, & as secure in the attempt as possibly, not forgetting the great supplys of French forces lately arrived att Siam, who may possibly bee sent to releive the place, & on the other hand we are now more desirous of having Mergen, then ever, to prevent the Dutch & French therein who may make itt of great prejudice to us and our trade. And that your designes may not fail for want of mony, we have laden aboard the Pearle Frigat, a Chest of Silver, containing four Thousand Dollars, amounting to Two Thousand Three hundred & Fifty three Pago & if your occations require more draw on us, and wee shall duly pay your Bills, all which you must keep & render us a due acct of, as also of the amunition, Stores & provission before & now Sent you, Our Garrison being att present but very Slenderly man'd & not knowing how Soon the troubles in this Country may reach us, wee can now Spare you no more then Nineteen Souldiers, which with those on the Curtana & James Frigats, make up a company of Sixty, which wee beleive are a much greater number & force then you will meet att Mergen, & sufficient to take and keep itt, But if you do not settle there, then wee order you to employ your Stock in buying there, or att the adjacent Ports, Sufficient grain & provissions to lade the three Frigats hither, which will bear much of their charge & supply the great necessities of this Garrison, & to fill up with what Timbers & Plank you can procure, being very plentifull in those parts, & what we much want here, but rather to load Pepper, which Sometimes is procurable in those parts.

And in your return hither (if itt may be done without much loss of time) wee would have you touch att Acheen, where possibly you may meet with, some of our Enemies the Mogull or King of Siam's Ships, which you must Seiz & bring hither, with their intire Cargoes, to bee examined & judged by the Court of Admiralty, Also that you Seiz on all Ships, & plunder all places of the King of Siams, att or near Mergen, also two good vessells near Tenasseree wrongfully taken from one Joseph de Marke (an eminent Armenian Inhabitant of this Citty) with a considerable estate, in his voyage from Pegu hither, before any warr was begun, or declared by us or them, & therefore was rather Piracy then a just Seizure, Also if you meet with a Ship called the George Capt John Tyler Commander, to whom wee gave our Pass, but beleive he has abused itt, therefore Seiz & bring him & his Ship hither, to answer for his late trecherous illegall actions in this Road, and great contempt of the Government, also those Stragling Fugitives, that belonged to Capt Eldred Commander of the Loyall Capt Vizt John Faulkingham, Richard Atkins, Edward Cornmell & Wyman Clyff, who went hence, not only without our permission but against our order, whom make Strict inquisition for, & bring to us, or declare them Rebellious Subjects, & no doubt wee shall sometime find them to prosecute and punish their crime.

In the Said coppy of the Rt Honble Compas generall of the 22th October 1686 you find severall orders to us, about the Siam affair, which we would have you peruse & consider well, Therein you see they incline to an accommodation of the Warr, with the King of Siam conditionally that he will make over the Port, Town and Coppy Commission & Instructions to Mr Hodges &ca.

And if you Settle any ways att Mergen, we then hereby order & appoint the Worpll William Hodges Esqr Governour, Mr Samuell White Deptv Governr & Mr John Hill Captain of the Garrison & third of Councill, & in case of the decease, absence or refusall of the others, to Succeed to the Government, & to make choice of such persons upon the place, or belonging to the Ships, as shall bee thought faithfull, & fitting to supply the Councill for the time being and to prevent any disputes or disorders in our Shipping, wee appoint Capt Weltden Admirall, Capt Perriman Vice Admirall, and Capt Armiger Gostlin Reer Admirall, in absence of our land Councill, who when aboard any of the Said Ships, are to take place, as Stated in the title of this Commission, only Capt Weltden to bee also of your land Councill, and to take place next the Deptv Governour; And for your Government we order that itt be just and strict, executing Martiall Law in i'ts due methods, both aboard and ashoar, according to his Majesties Royall Charter granted to his Rt Honble East India Company of which we give you coppy for your better authority and direction, & Since that 'tis the inexcusable duty of Christians & the Success of all things Soly depend upon Providence, we Strictly recommend & require your due and daily observance of Divine worship, imploreing the Almighties blessing upon your endeavours, and protection of your persons and affairs, And that your deportment and conversations, be So virtuous and exemplary as may wyn the Natives to a respectfull willing Submission and preserve order and amity among your Selves, whilst the Sad effects of vice and disorder, will bee little better, then distraction and ruine.

Coppy of a Letter to Mr Burneby and Mr White.

Our late advices by Capt Anthony Weltden of the 25th Aprill 1687 so fully enform'd & satisfied you of the occation of our Warr with the King of Siam, that we hope before this you have complied with his late Majesties command by Proclamation, in leaving that service, But if not, & that some ill Councill's or interest hath seduced & disswaded you from your duties & obedience, These are then to acquaint you, that his present Majesty King James the Second of England, hath so just a Sence of the many injuries & affronts done his Rt Honble East India Company by the King of Siams Ministers & Servants, whose interest & authority he is resolved to protect & defend from their Enemies, And therefore has not only approved, but commanded the prosecution of this Warr, and has also been gratiously pleased to issue forth his Royall & more ample Proclamation, for the recalling his Subjects in India from the Services of these Princes, & more expresly from the King of Siam, whom you lately served, And least his Royall Proclamation should not be prevalent with you, he has therefore sent you his particular Royall Letter of command for your returne from the King of Siams Service, to his Rt Honble Compas or that you will Surrender up the Town & forces of Mergen, into the posession of his Subjects, servants to the Said Rt Honble East India Compa which Royall command we cannot doubt your Loyalty to obey, which for your own honour & safeties, wee earnestly charge & advise you too, And thô his Majesties said Letter, is now unhappily absent, being sent from England in October last upon Ship Bengall Merchant, who in her way hither, was order'd first to go to

Bombay, with supplies for that Garrison, but by contrary winds and a cal[m]y voyage was met att Johanna, in June last, So that we cannot expect her from Bombay this Season, nor our Packets time enough to be Sent you by this Monsoon, But we hope the disappointment & want thereof, will not bee an evasion for your obedience, Since upon our faiths & reputations what we write is really truth, And you cannot think the Rt Honble Compa or wee dare be So presumptuous as to equivocate with Royalty, which is a crime most remote from our thoughts or practice, And what wee averr as to the Kings express letter to you, a little time will satisfie you therein, And to confirme you for the present wee have Sent coppies of the Rt Honble Compas Generalls to us about itt.

And hope your Loyalty & love & duty to your Country will bee Sufficient subjects, to press you to a compliance, & a quiett surrender of Mergen, which being now under your Government, is in your power, & to do a Signall Service to his Majesty, his East India Compa & the Nation, which otherwise may cost us Some blood & trouble, which we desire to avoid, & nothing but a necessity shall force itt, which remember, as 'tis in your power to prevent itt, so consequently you are the occation, & itt will lye att your Doors & some time, will have a Severe Satisfaction on you, for know that disobedience to his Majesties Summons from any Princes Country att Warrs with him, is made Treason by Act of Parliamt therefore consider & resolve well, least you plunge your Selves into that heynous crime, this we chiefly write for caution, not that wee beleive your prudence & Loyalty can be guilty of So great a folly, or that you preferr a forreign Nation before your own, for certainly if we have not Mergen, the French or Dutch will be Suddainly Masters of itt, And wee hope the King of Siam will bee perswaded by you, freely to grant & give itt us, upon tearmes of peace, which wee have Commission'd the Worpll William Hodges Esqr &ca to discourse & advise with you about, & pray do your utmost therein, for your own honour, & the good of our Nation, His Majty and our Rt Honble Masters having so good an opinion & esteem for Mr Samuell White, that they expect & doubt not of this good Service from him, & have order'd us to appoint him Deptv Governr of Mergen for them, which we have accordingly Commission'd & desire his acceptance thereof for the present, assuring him of better for the future, we shall also consider Mr. Burneby to his Satisfaction, therefore pray unanimously joyn your Selves & people with ours, and be not the occation of a Civill warr, to the destruction of both, which the Almighty divert & keep you from, And then you may bee assured as we are we shall continue friends to Serve you

That for above 57 years we have had Factorys in Bengall, Orixa & Pattana, & according to the Phermaund of the King & Perwannaes of Severall Nabobs, especially of the former Governmt & this Nabob we paid 3000 Rupees yearly as Piscash, Since which in the time of Hodge Suffican, Duan of Dacca, the following oppressions have been done unto us. Wee desire you these oppressions be taken from us, And according to our former Custome we may with content continue our Merchandise, that as we come & go from a farr Country, under the protection of the King & Nabob, Wee are in hopes that in every thing wee Shall bee assisted. Coppy of the Articles of peace agreed upon in Bengall.

1. From the time we had our Factorys here according to the Phirmaund & severall Perwannaes of Nabobs, each year instead of Customes we paid 3000 Rupees yearly Piscash to the King, In Hodgee Suffican's time by oppression, We have paid Custome att the rate of $3\frac{1}{2}$ p Cent. Wee now desire that this bee taken from us, and that the Nabob for removall of this oppression Petition the King for a Phirmaund Custome free, & that till the Phirmaund comes, wee pay but 3000 Rupees yearly as formerly, & that this oppression of Custome be not demanded.

2. Whereas the Mint att Rajamall is a great distance from Hugly, & the danger great, in carrying our Treasure thether, & bringing the Sicca's thence, which arrive not in time. We who are come from a farr Country, & live under the Protection of the King & Nabob att liberty, & trade freely, desire that the Mint be brought to Hugly as itt is att Surat.

3. That our Servants Gomastaes &ca who have any difference in accts with us, that itt bee agreed to, that such difference, be decided by Arbitrations of Merchants.

4. That all our goods by Land & water, from place to place, according to our former custome, may come & go on our own Dusticks, & that our Boats with goods, may not be Stopped on pretence of way charges, Wharfidge, or any other accts whatsoever.

5. That no Mutsuddy neither force nor impose any goods on or from us, att their own rates.

6. That our Gomastas in every place where they please shall bee assisted by the Mutsuddies for a place to put their goods in.

7. That the Picars att Cassimbuzar who have kept from us mony that they owed us, & notwithstanding that, have forced from us, 44000 Rupees, Wee desire that this bee examined by Merchants, & whatever is due to them we pay, & what they have unjustly taken from us, be returned.

8. That the Nabob issue out his Perwannaes, on all his Mutsuddies to assist us in recovering our Debts.

9. That our Factory of Malda which by the falce information of the Jemedar, that itt was a Fort, being pulled down, We desire that the thing may bee examined, & if itt appear to be a falce information, he may have order to rebuild itt, he having likewise taken mony from us.

Walter Galloway offers his Service for the West Coast. He is entertain'd a Writer. Pago 10 to be advanced to him.

Walter Galloway offering himself to Serve the Rt Honble Compa att the West Coast, Itt is order'd that he be entertain'd a Writer att 15 £ a year, having a good Character of him from Some of the Councill, & that Pag° 10 bee paid him on acct of his Sallery.

Concerning Capt Eldreds demorage & breach of orders.

Capt Francis Eldred having often very importunatly demanded demorage, according to Charterparty with the Rt Honble Compa for his Ship Loyall Captaine, att £ 3 : 15 s p day from her arrivall from England to this Port, the 11th of Aprill,

[21st.] ——FORT ST. GEORGE, SEPTEMBER 1687.——

to this day the time of her unlading & discharge, which by his Acc[t] is 162 dayes, att £ 3 : 15[s] & 5[s] p̃ Dollar is R[lls] 2430, which Summe he demanded of the Councill, whereupon M[r] Robert Freeman & M[r] Samuell Wales late Chiefs of Metchlepatam & Madapollam, were Sent for, they being chiefly concern'd in diverting the Loyall Captain, from her order'd voyage to Bengall, when after we had heard the whole relation of this affair, with their reasons & necessity for their ordring the Ship hither, as p̃ their joint Consultation of the 20[th] July in Metchlepatam, as also Cap[t] Eldreds reasons & excuses for his breach of orders, M[r] Wales & he, were desired to withdraw, when the Councill long debated the matter, & by plurality of Votes resolved as followeth Viz[t].

Consideration upon Capt Eldreds breach of orders.

That in consideration of Cap[t] Eldreds great fault, by his breach of orders, in disobeying his dispatch to the Bay, which might have been, the occation of many bad consequents for the circumstances of our affairs in Bengall, & to caution & deterr others for the future from the like inexcuseable offence, 'tis agreed & order'd that no more demorage be paid him, then from his arrivall here, the 11[th] Aprill to the 20[th] of July, which is only the time he was actually in Service, & was clear'd from the Madapollam goods, which were then put aboard the Loyall Adventure in Metchlepatam road, which is 99 dayes, att £ 3 : 15[s] p̃ diem, & the Dollar att 5[s] as p̃ Charterparty amo[ts] to Ry[lls] 1485 & that this Summe be not paid him, without he fully discharges the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] from all future demands for the remaining 945 Dollers, he makes due by his acc[t] for bringing up the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[as] Sick Servants, & their necessarys hither, And the reason of our paying the 1485 Dollars is from M[r] Freemans and M[r] Wales their declaration, that they could procure no other conveyance for the Madapollam goods thence, which was long endeavoured to be transported through the Rivers to Metchlepatam, in which they had got a great way, but itt not being thoroughly to be effected, they were forced to return them to Madapollam, where they must of necessity have layn, exposed to the hazzard & danger of a bad Government & the Mogulls Army, who were plundering not farr from those parts, & their nearer approach daily expected, from whom, neither wee, nor our concernes, could expect any favour, considering our differences with them in Bengall, besides the necessity of those goods for the dispatch of the Loyall Adventure, for England, all which reasons render the bringing them thence upon Ship Loyall Captain, a necessary good Service to the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a].

MR Thomas Constable advising us in his Letter of the 13th Instant, that he could not prevail with those Merchants, to lade Grain on the Royall James for this Port, but that they were willing to freight to the amt of 3 or 4000 Pago of Paddy, within 10 or 12 dayes time for Palliacat, Ramapatam or Pettepollee, & though our chief design in Sending the Royall James to the Southward, was for Stores for the Garison, & Supplies for the Town, but Since that is not to be effected, rather then she should want a lading, & make an unproffitable idle voyage, 'tis agreed that if they cannot procure, a freight hither, that they take one for Palliacat, Ramapatam or Pettepollee, att the usuall rates for those parts, & that a Letter be wrot & Sent to Coodaloor ordering itt accordingly.

Of lading the Loyall Adventure. Often recommended to the Warehouskeeper. The Commander prest to get his Ship in a readiness. Reasons why their business went on slowly. Ours ready to dispatch her in a few dayes Monsoon happening. Loyall Adventure drove ashoar. Souldiers & Peons Sett to watch att the Sea Side. Not a bale seen to come ashoar Concerning the lumber that came ashoar from the wreck. Five of the Ships crew missing. The Rt. Honble Comp^as loss great. All possible care taken. Many others great loosers.

Ship Loyall Adventure according to our former Consultation of the 29^th August being order'd to be discharged of her goods brought hither, & reladen with a Cargo for England, which was often recomended to the Warehouskeeper, to use his greatest expedition therein, who they say did accordingly press the Commander, to get his Ship in a readiness, to receive in goods, & to Send what others were order'd ashoar, but through his, & many of his Seamens distempers & weakness, which they brought hither from Metchlepatam, their business went on Slowly, thô ours was in readiness to have dispatcht her in few dayes, also the Boat mens runing away was a great hindrance, but contrary to all expectation, & the course of the Monsoons, happened on Thursday last so violent a storm, as drove three Ships out of the road, & two Ships with Severall Country Boats ashoar, the Loyall Adventure & another Ship Still riding att Anchor so well, that there was little doubt of their safety, thô the Seas run so high, no Boat or Cattamaran, could possibly gett off to their assistance, But the Winds & Seas encreasing, they unhappily broak all their Cables, & came ashoar about 12 last night, before w^ch Guards of Souldiers & Peons were order'd by the Governour to watch all night att the Sea Side, least any such disaster should happen, that they might be ready to Succour them, & Save what people & goods should come ashoar, but thô the Loyall Adventure bilg'd & broak in pieces very near the Shoar, att S^t Thomas Point, yet not a Bale could bee seen to come ashoar, nor any thing of greater consequence, then Some parcells of Tea, Gallingal, broaken Scritores, with empty Chests & Cask, & such lumber, which was order'd to be Secured in one of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Godowns, & after all was brought in, to deliver each person, what they could make appear to be theirs, & what of the Wreck Saved to be Sold for the Owners, & brought to their acc^t there are five of the Ships crew missing, which are Supposed to be drowned, many others narrowly escaping with their lives, And thô the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as loss & disappointment is very great, by this unexpected, but unavoidable disaster, yet we having done our duties & taken all possible care therein, wee hope none will blame us, for such Providentiall dispensations, many of us having been great loosers thereby.

Mr Littleton to give an acct of the Loyall Adventures lading.

M^r John Littleton Warehouskeeper is order'd to give a List of all the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as goods, laden from the Northern Factorys, & here, aboard ship Loyall Adventure, & that he produce the Bills of Lading or receipts for them.

Watch to be kept att the Sea Side. Peons to be sent Northward & South ward. Letters to be writt to Coodaloor, Conimeer &c.

Order'd that a Strict Guard & Watch be Still kept att the Sea Side to prevent embezling any thing, that may be driven ashoar, also that Ten Peons be sent along the Coast, to Palliacat & ten to Covelon, & enquire all the way, for goods driven ashoar, & if find any, to Secure them for the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a & give us present advice thereof, least the Country Governments Seiz them as forfeitures, Also that Letters be wrot to Coodaloor, and Conimeer, Generalls to Coodaloor & to Conimeer & to the Governours & Avaldars dated this day read and past. Generalls read & past.

There being 18 Seamen which belonged to the Loyall Adventure escaped ashoar destitute of all necessarys, Itt is therefore order'd that the Boatswain, Gunner, Carpenter & Coxen be entertain'd in the Gun room crew, & the rest to take up Armes, & that a months pay be advanced, to provide them with Cloaths & diett, they coming naked ashoar. 18 Seamen of the Loyall Adventurs escaped drowning. to be taken into the Rt Honble Compas Service. A months pay to be advanced.

The French Padre that we had given leave to take his passage on the Loyall Adventure for England, made a complaint to us, that he had laden a Trunk upon her, wherin were two Gold & Silver Boxes, which he brought from the King of Siam, & that the Gold one was for his Soveraign Maj^ty^ of England, wherein were Letters to him, & Severall others, & that Since the Said Ships being cast away, he had Seen that Trunk broak ashoar, but nothing therein, And that he took a paper from the hands of M^r^ Nathaniell Higginson, which he knew to be in the Said Gold box, and was a List of a Present, Sent the King of England, by the King of Siam last year upon a French Ship, and is here enter'd, Whereupon M^r^ Nathaniell Higginson being then present in Councill, was enquired about itt, who told us, that the next morning after that night the Loyall Adventure was cast away, he with many others, being assisting att the Seaside, to Save what could be from the wreck, accidentally lookt into a Mussula Boat, that lay thereby, where he Saw an open paper, endorsed "A List of curiosities of his Maj^ty^ of Great Brittain. Being made up in Seven Chests. Humbly presented" which reaching out, was reading itt, when the Said Padre and M^r^ Lucas came by him to whom he began to tell the accident, and to Shew the paper, when the Padre Seing itt, Snatcht itt from him, and kept itt, till now he produced itt to the Councill, and this is the Summe of his report, but being a business his Maj^ty^ is concern'd in, and So of great consequen[ce,] M^r^ Higginson is therefore to give in his report upon Oath in writing, for fuller Satisfaction, And that M^r^ Freeman &^ca^ Justices, do Strictly enquire after the Said Boxes and Letters, and that they Search all Houses and persons for the Same, Since by many circumstances itt must bee ashoar, and Stoln that night, by Some of the Souldiers, Peons or Macwas, who were imployed to watch and assist, thô there was multitudes of other people, undoubtedly watching to get what they could, Thô we also much blamed the French Padre, sinc[e] he knew the Box and Letters were for his Maj^ty^ of England, that he did not acquaint us therewith, that we might have Secured itt better, then in his clandestine Trunk, & that itt should have been the last thing lade[n] & then to have taken receipts for itt, & to be done with that respect and honour, that is due to every thing, that bears our Gracious Kings name, But that now we have only the Padres word, whether there was such a thing as a Gold box, or if lost or not, & that Such a paper, might be easily framed to the story, any bad man would design, but all the Padres answer to this was, that he was order'd to keep, and deliver itt privatly, which he intended to do, and was Sorry the consequence was so bad, So telling the Padre, we should use our utmost endeavours for it's recovery, dismist him.

[10TH.] Consideration of sending advices [to] the Rt Honble Compa. Royall James to be sent for.

Concluding itt of great importance to the Rt Honble Compa that they bee advis'd of the state of their affairs in Bengall & all other places under our charge, & having unhappily lost the design'd oppertunity by Ship Loyall Adventure, And being advised that the Royall James was return'd to Coodaloor, near laden with Paddy, 'tis agreed that she be order'd to make all possible hast hither, & that they lade on her all the Bale goods & Pepper procurable, & to dispatch her thence to Conimeer, to take in what they can provide, & so return hither, to receive in our Bale goods, Pepper &ca., with what elce can be provided to dispatch her by the end of this month for England, (there being now no occation for her in Bengall) which will cease her great charge of demorage, & to keep her longer here will be to little purpose, since we have neither mony, nor orders to take up any att Interest, to provide goods for our Tonnage, but limited to buy no more, then 234 Tonns of Coast goods, except we should have an overplus of Stock, which we are so farr from, that we have not sufficient to discharge our Debts & present occations, So that wee have no other hopes left us for the lading the rest of our Ships, but the West Coast, which wee have already taken all possible care about, but the Royall James is not fitt to go thether now, having lost near 80 men there in her outward bound voyage, & many Since dead & run away But we hope to perswade most of the Loyall Adventure's men to go upon her to England, thô they will not to the West Coast, they having been sent for, & acquainted with his Majtys Proclamation, that they were forbidden to Serve any forreign Nation, & therefore upon perrill thereof, they were not to leave the Rt Honble Compas Service, which they had entertain'd themselves in, But might go to England upon the Royall James, which offer most of them accepted of, This we thought necessary to acquaint them least they should leave the place, hearing that many of them, were discontented about their pay, they having Petition'd for the Rt Honble Comp[as] charitable benevolence to them, in consideration of their Sad disaster & deplorable condition, But wee Satisfied them that the Rt Honble Compa were also great loosers, and that the taking them into their Service, was a Sufficient Charity to maintain them.

Coppy of Mr Higginsons report.

Whereas Nicholas Charmott a French Padree, has this day given in a Petition, representing the loss of a Gold Box containing Letters, and a List of Presents to his Maj^ty^ of Great Brittain & a Silver Box with Letters &c^a^ for the Duke of Venice, which were committed to him for conveighance, & put into a Chest of his own laden aboard the Ship Loyall Adventure, which Ship being cast away, & the Said Nicholas Charmott finding one of the Said Lists in my hands, doth Suppose the Boxes & Letters &c^a^ must be also Safe, & therefore desires your Hon^r^ &c^a^ to make Scrutiny thereinto. And your Hon^r^ &c^a^ having order'd me to discover what I know thereof, I do hereby declare the whole that I know of the matter Viz^t^.

That going down to the Sea Side this morning early, & finding the Ship Loyall Adventure cast ashoar near the South end of the Mucquaw Town, & the broaken peices of the Ship, Chests, Boxes & goods lying all along the shoar, from that place to the Sea Gate, and a very great number of black people & Portuguez scattered up and down, whom I suspected came to Steal, I gott as many Peons & Cooleys as I could, & Sett them to work, to gather together, what lay upon the shoar, into Severall heaps for their better security, & passing by a Mussula, which lay a little leaning upon the shoar, near the place where the Ship was cast away, I cast my eye accidentally into the Mussula, & there Saw nothing but a paper lying unfolded, and the endorsment uppermost, & transiently reading these words "His Maj^ty^ of great Brittain" I was curious to See the paper, and so drew itt out of the Mussula with a Stick, & finding the endorsment to be as I remember "a List of Presents for his Maj^ty^ of great Brittain" did indeavour to read the paper, but the Wind blew so hard I could not hold itt open long enough, to read the whole contents, & so folded itt up as I went along, by which time I mett with M^r^ Lucas, & the Said French Padre, standing together, & the Said French Padre seeing the Indorsment, as I held the paper in my hand, snatch'd itt out of my hand & Said 'twas his. And I declare that I know nothing more concerning the Said List, nor do I know, nor have heard anything of the Padres Chest, or the Boxes, Presents or Letters mentioned in his Petition, till he now Spoak of itt himself to your Hon^r^ &c^a^.

Coppy of the Justices Attestation about the Gold Box.

According to your Hon^r &c^a Councills order, wee made our Strict enquiries for the discovery of a Gold box said to bee cast away upon Ship Loyall Adventure, Viz^t. That upon the first notice & charge given us, wee Searched all the Mackwar houses, as also all other places near the wreck, that could be suspected to have concealed or hidden any such thing, after which (the Seamen that belonged to Said Ship, were brought into the Fort, & there Severally & particularly examined about the Said box, both as to i'ts lading & loss & to the first they say there was a trunk laden aboard the Ship here in the Road of Madras, corded up & stood in the great Cabbin, when the Ship was cast away, untouched by any of the Ships company, as they are ready to depose upon their Oaths, but what became of itt after the ship broak, they know nothing of, also all the English & Portugues Souldiers that were Guards att the water Side, the Same time were examined, as also their Lodges & Houses, but can hear no tidings thereof, thô wee have used all ways possible for i'ts discovery, therefore do beleive, that if any such thing was driven ashoar from Ship Adventure, itt may have been found or seized by some stranger passenger that hath carried itt Some distance from the Town, but wee have Sent to all the Governours near us about itt, & have given strict charge to all the Citty Watches, Talliars, Peons, Goldsmiths & Shroffs, still to continue their Strict Search after the Said Boxes, & to acquaint us of all broken Gold, & Silver Philligrin work, the said Charmot declaring them to bee of that work, which is usually made att Manilla, & Jappan, & thus having discharged our duties to our power, wee hope none will censure us, for the want of Success therein, thô wee do not yet dispair [sic.] but that time may produce itt, which thô of small vallue, yet of great import to us, in consideration of the Royall Majesty t'was directed to, Given under our hands the Twenty Six day of October Anno 1687.

Conimeer merchants will not make a contract. The reasons they give.

Having last night rec^d a Generall Letter from Conimeer dated the 5^th Inst wherein they write us that they cannot perswade their Merchants to contract according to the List Sent them the 25^th of last month, agreable to the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as orders, & their reasons was that they had much Europe goods upon their hands, unsold, besides the danger of the Government, that were Seeking out to Secure themselves from the approaching danger of the Mogulls invation of that Country, being reported that Ten Thousand of the Mogulls horse are coming down with that design, which So terrifies the Merch^ts as itt puts a Stop to all trade & business, that they dare not engage in a contract for the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a. The Chief &c^a also write us their own apprehensions of the danger of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Stock att their Factory, desiring that wee will send them Some Security, for its transport or defence, & the Royall James having been for 14 dayes att Sadraspatam which is about 15 leagues distance from Conimeer, & that there will be little difference in gaining her passage from thence, as Sadraspatam, hither, Itt is thought convenient, & accordingly order'd, that the Royall James do go to Conimeer, & take in the Treasure & goods there, if the Chief and Councill shall find itt necessary, or that they cannot bring their Merchants to a compliance.

Danger of the Rt Honble Compas Stock att Conimeer. Royall James now att Sadraspatam. Orderd to go to Conimeer to secure their Stock.

Itt being proposed to the Councill, whether itt was necessary Since the news is confirmed of the Mogulls taking Gulcondah, to send an English man to congratulate his conquest, & to compose our differences, but haveing lately wrote to his Nabob, what could be thought convenient in our case, Itt is agreed that wee await the answer to that Letter, & to proceed according to the import of their Letter.

Proposed to send an Englishman to the Mogull. Agreed to await the answer to our former Letter.

M^r John Davis being Sent for to know if he had any more to offer in the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as behalf or his own, or otherwise to object against our proceedings & late examination, & that he would now declare itt to us, to which he return'd, that he had no addition or objection to make therein, he was also advised that he must give us Satisfaction, to the complaint made from Coodaloor, of the very bad Sortment of the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as cloth in his time, when the acc^t of M^r Hall & M^r Swynokes Resortment was delivered him, which he was desired to consider of, Since wee must examine him about itt, and other things, whose answer was, that he had formerly perused that paper, & had nothing more to Say, but that he had Served the R^t Hon^ble Comp^a faithfully to his abillity, to which was returned that he could not pretend any deficiency in his Judgment in the Sorting of cloth, Commissions to the Officers of the Train'd Bands. Other officers appointed. A Summons to the Inhabitants. Train'd bands to be drawn up & exercised.

A Commission Sign'd & deliver'd M^r Robert Freeman to be Capt^ne of the Train'd bands Comp^a M^r John Affloeck Liev^t M^r Henry Alford Ensign, M^r John Pitt & M^r John Coventry Serjeants, M^r Troughton & M^r Inch Corporalls, & Francis Bett Clerke, with Rounders, Drumers &c^a necessary Officers. Also a Summons to all the English Inhabitants under the Councill to appear in arms att the ffort, upon the penalty of Ten Pagodas each for the first neglect, And Cap^t Freeman is order'd to get all things in readiness to draw up and exercise his Company, Some time next month.

To hasten in the Investment att Coodaloor. To take as few fine goods as possibly. The Cloth much below the Musters. To Sort that Cloth by new Musters & numbers. To send their goods hither to secure them from danger.

A Generall to Coodaloor read and past ordering the hastning in their Investment, wherein to take as few fine goods as possibly since course is so much required by our R^t Hon^ble Masters, at least not to exceed M^r Davis &c^a contract in fine Sorts, & whereas they write us that the Cloth brought in by the Merchants is much below the Mustars, & that the Merchants tell them, they can procure no other these troublesome times, & that a longer delay may endanger the R^t Hon^ble Comp^as Stock in their hands, if the two Armies now in those parts should plunder them, as 'tis very doubtfull and likely they will, 'tis therefore thought convenient as well from that consideration, as also to provide goods to lade the Royall James for England, that they Sort those goods brought in by new Mustars and numbers in proportion to the goodness & price of the first Mustar, or rather lower in consideration of their failure in contract, & that they end their acc^ts & send their goods hither, as Soon as possibly, to Secure them from the dangerous troubles of the Country.

Madras ffrigat orderd from Trincombar to Coodaloor.

A Letter to Trincombar read & past ordring M^r Wallice &c^a to bring away his Ship thence as soon as possibly to Coodaloor (since they are very unreasonable in the price of what they assist them with for the repairs of the Ship) and that they fitt her occations there, and proceed upon their voyage to Sumatra.

Examination of the complaint against the Choultry Dubash.

The Choultry Dubash was examined about the complaint against him for falce interpretation, when the three Dubashes that was brought as evidences were examined, one of whom declared that about two years past being att the Choultry, he heard Said Dubash mistake the interpretation of some words to the Justices, but beleives them to bee ignorantly Spoaken, but M^r Coventry who was also then present att the Choultry & pretends some knowledge in the Gentue Language affirms to us, that he was then present att the Choultry, and to the best of his apprehension heard the Said Dubash make a great mistake in his interpretation to the Justices, whereof he then enformed them, but will not venture to Swear to this report, not being so perfect in the Gentue Language, nor do any of the witnesses charge him with any corruption or unfaithfullness in his office, & 'tis generally beleived that this mistake was only Lapsus Linguœ, M^r Freeman who pretends also a good proficiency in the Gentue Language declaring, that he hath discharged that duty of an Interpreter, with great punctuallity, Since his being in the Choultry. However a great reputation of this Government depending upon the Choultry Court, where a mistake either from designe or ignorance, may lead the Justices into error, for prevention wherof 'tis agreed, that so great a trust should not depend on a Single person & therefore order'd that one other able linguist be joyn'd with the present Choultry Dubash, joyntly to interpret all cases in the Choultry & Court of Admiralty.

Choultry Court a great reputation to this Governmt. Another able Dubash to be join'd in that Court.

Order'd that Pag[o] 918 : 31 : 3. bee paid M[r] Nathaniell Higginson Paymaster Generall to defray Charges Garrison &c[a].

Concerning procuring the Great Mogulls Phirmaund.

Having had many considerations & debates upon the procuring the Great Mogulls Phirmaund for the firm & lasting Settlement & enjoyment of the English Interest & trade in India, which now Seems to lye att a dangerous Stake, by reason of the Mogulls displeasure against us, & his totall conquest of this Country, which Subjects allmost all our Settlements & trade, under his Government, & now not being well able to reduce him to termes by Warr, having lost most of our Forces in Bengall, where thô they advise us of making a peace upon indifferent good Articles, yet att the Same time they much doubt the Nabobs compliance with them, which if he should, yet without the Kings Phirmaund, would bee of little force or obligation upon the next Government, & thereby render our affairs in as uncertain and ruinous a condition as before, But thô the whole Councill are fully satisfied of the great necessity & advantage of obtaining the Mogull[s] generall Phirmaund, & that possibly there can never happen so good an occation & oppertunity for itt, by his nearness to us, and the more happy fortune, of having the assured friendship of Nabob Mahobat Cawn, his great favourite & our old friend, to whom he has entrusted the Sole order & Government of this new conquer'd Country, who by his Severall kind Letters, has promised his best assistance, and gives us great encouragment & hopes of accommodating our differences, and getting us a Substantiall full Phirmaund, Yet itt being So weighty an affair & chargable, & having no particular order from the R[t] Hon[ble] Comp[a] about itt, who in Such emergent cases, order a Generall Councill to bee called, which is to consist of this Councill in ordin[ry] & all the Senior Merchants & Merchants upon the place, to advise with, & take their opinions in Such extraordinary matters, which accordingly was done, & the Generall Councill being mett, which consisted of the Preside[nt] M[r] John Gray, S[r] John Biggs, M[r] John Littleton, M[r] Robert Freeman, M[r] Thomas Wavell, M[r] Nathaniell Higginson, M[r] William Fraser, M[r] John Cheney, M[r] John Davis, M[r] Daniell Gyfford, M[r] Thomas Yale, John Stables, M[r] Henry Alford & M[r] Henry Mose, who being Sate the President fully states the case, which being debated, 'twas generally & unanimously agreed & resolved, that all means possibly be used for purchasing the Mogulls Phirmaund for our firm Settlement & Secure trade, since the English Intrest now wholy depended thereon, & therefore whatever the charge may bee in reason (which by most is judged will cost in that chargeable Court

The Councill of oppinion to obtain the Mogulls Phirmaund.

No particular order from the Rt Honble Compa about itt.

A Generall Councill mett.

Unanimously agreed to purchase the Mogulls Phirmaund.

near Pag° 50000) that itt bee vigorously prosecuted, & no time lost therein, which wee doubt not will bee to the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^as^ satisfaction, since itt will prevent that great charge & trouble, which yearly embroiled and obstructed their trade.

Proposed to Send two of the Councill to Gulcondah. Nabob desires us to appoint Coje Abanus our Vakell. To oblige him therein. A great charge will be prevented thereby.

Itt was also proposed whether 'twas not convenient to Send two of the Councill to Gulcondah, to mannage this great & chargeable business, as also to pay our respects & congratulations to the Mogull, but in consideration that the Nabob has nominated & desired us to make our good friend Coje Abanus our Vakeel or Attorney to act & conclude this business with him, which Supposing he most desires for his Secret advantage, 'tis thought fitt to oblige & gratifie him therein, as also that itt will prevent a very great charge, that will necessarily attend, such a journey by the Councill, who for the honour of the R^t^ Hon^ble^ Comp^a^ and Nation must appear as splendidly as possibly, besides so publick an address will draw many of the Courtiers greedy eys, [sic] & expectations upon them, which unavoidably will greatly inhance the charge of our business, and possibly create some Enemies that may obstruct our business. 'Tis therefore concluded the most secret & secure way to referr the mannagm^t^ wholy to the Nabob & our Vakeel Coje Abanus, But that if hereafter the Mogull requires our attendance upon him, & that itt cannot bee avoided without disobliging him & our business, that then some of the Councill be sent up to him, but wee hope the Nabob will excuse itt having lately wrot to him about itt.

The mannagmt of the business to be refer'd to the Nabob & Vakeel. To send some of the Councill if not to be avoided.

Consideration of sending money to Gulcondah.

And thô from their Letters & our Severall enquiries much money is expected from us in this business, the Nabob being a very covetous man, yet least some trick & disappointment should be put upon us, as last year the Vakeel from Bengall was Serv'd, taking near Rup^s^ 100000 from him for nothing, or least they should seize it[t] from us, on pretence of our being lately att Warrs with them, or to make Satisfaction for the injuries wee have done, and severall Ships taken from them, 'Tis agreed that we send only Pag° 10000 to Gulcondah by Mess^rs^ Chardin & Salvadore, who are going thether and that they keep itt privatly in their own names, till our Vakeel shall for our occations demand itt from them, giving his receipt for itt, also that some other presents bee Sent by them to oblige the Nabob in our business.

Only Pago 10000 to be sent by Messrs Chardin & Salvadore. Directions about Said Pago 10000.

Mahomed Alle Beangue made Seerlascar of this Country.

Mahomed Alle Beague late Governour of Metchlepatam being now advanced, to the Seerlascarship of this Country, & himself writeing us of the great honour conferr'd upon him by the Mogull and the Nabob, & of his uncontroulable authority in this Country, besides wee knowing him to bee an intimate favourite of the Nabobs, & that his advice has a great influence upon him, & he now expecting a more then ordinary complement from us, 'Its agreed & order'd that M^r^ Robert Freeman & one Factor do wait upon him with our Lr̃es & present which (considering his place & the kindness he is capable of doing us) to be to the amount of Pag° 300 in a publick present & 500 in a private one, the more to engage him to us, which we hope M^r^ Freeman will bee Successfull in, having had a long & intimate acquaintance with him att Metchlepatam, & that he also endeavour the renting of S^t^ Thomá, about which he is also to discourse Puttee Cawn, Sangana &c^a^ when he delivers our Letters & Piscashes to them, & to endeavour the dispose of Europe goods among those Merchants and that Instructions be given him accordingly.

Mr Freeman to compliment him.

A Present to be sent to him.

Instructions to be given Mr Freeman.

From Conimeer they also propose to bring in goods upon the Same termes, to the amt of Pago 60000 by the fine of June, but having neither order nor money for that, wee cannot yet resolve anything about itt, But do now agree to Send them Pago 7000 upon the January Investment, & they requiring Ropes, Twine, & Gunnys for the baleing their goods none being procureable there, 'tis order'd that the Warehouskeeper doe Supply them with what necessary, by the next Sea oppertunity.

Concerning the Rigging sent by Capt Burton. To be examined by the Admiralty. Storekeeper to land & house them.

Lingapa late Seer Lascar of this Country having often endeavoured to put an Avaldar upon this Town, and to impose a Custome for the Duan, but being Successless therein, he about three years past orders the building a Banksall within a mile of the Fort, intending there to stop all Grain & other goods to pay them Juncan, before they would permit them to come into Town, but Lingapa happily leaving this world, before the finishing his ill designe or the Banksall, itt has Since layn neglected, after a great expence, & forwardness, being brought up about ten foot from the ground, & a large Strong building near 100 foot square, built most part with Iron Stone, & a Strong double wall, that might bee soon made a good ffortification against us, in consideration of which & the troublesome times that threaten us, the Governour privatly treated with the Avaldar of Pullimalee about buying the Said building of him, who after Some time and much perswasion & being likely to be turn'd out of his Governmt was prevailed with to dispose, or rather give the Same to the Governour, for Pago 60 thô by calculation of our bricklayers itt could not cost less then twenty times as much, whereby wee have removed the danger of too near a Garrison, or att least a troublesome Country Custome house hoping no trouble will ensue thereon.

Elihu Yale Esq[r] President & Governour
M[r] John Gray S[r] John Biggs
M[r] John Littleton M[r] Robert Freeman
M[r] Thomas Wavell M[r] Nath Higginson
M[r] William Fraser.

The examination of M[r] William Cawleys charge against M[r] John Davis continued & taken as followeth Viz[t].

Article 6th. To the 6[th] Article wherein M[r] Cawley Sayes that M[r] Davis particular travelling charges, are put to the Comp[as] acc[t], to which M[r] Davis replies that he is willing to repay any Such charges, if itt Shall Soe appear, & the Accomptant here is orderd to Examine the Books with M[r] Cawley, & that the extraordinary expence, bee made good by M[r] Davis.

Article 7th. To the 7[th] Article wherein he is charged with driving a great trade of his own with the Merchants, to the prejudice of the Comp[as] Investment, & forceing his own goods upon the Merchants, above the markett price, rendring them uncapable of complying with their contract.

To which M[r] Davis replies that he acknowledges he has drove a considerable trade with those Merchants, Portonovo and Coodaloor to the am[t] of Pag[o] 20000 that year, but that the Tin was Sold in his absence, Allom &c[a] goods M[r] Cawley speaks of to have been prejudiciall to the Comp[a] was Sold some months before the arrivall of the Comp[as] Ships, when itt was not known, what goods might bee expected by them, & that the Callicoes M[r] Davis rec[d] from the Merch[ts] he offers to make Oath, were chiefly Such as were turned out of the Comp[as] Sortment, & therefore could bee no prejudice to the Comp[as] Investment, & M[r] Cawley being examined thereon, and desired to give us what proofs he could, how the Same was prejudiciall to the Comp[as] affairs, in which he answers, that he only heard the Said Merchants tell M[r] Davis, they could not contract with him, for such course Sort of goods, by reason they were under Such engagements to the Hon[ble] Comp[a]. To which he Saith, M[r] Davis then replyed & demanded of them, why they could not provide him goods, as well as the Comp[a] & that afterwards the Merchants did provide the goods for M[r] Davis, but that he knows not to what quantity, & that M[r] Cawley beleives that to bee the reason, why the Merch[ts] did not compleat their contract, with the Comp[a] but he can give no other proof or reason in this matter, which being only conjecture, wee cannot in justice, award any thing thereon.

Article 8. M[r] Cawley here charges M[r] Davis to have made use of & disposed Severall goods of the Hon[ble] Comp[as] particularly the Gold thread att 30 p̃ C[t] Loss, to himself & the Dutch, to the am[t] of about Pag[o] 290.

To which M[r] Davis answers that 'tis true he Sold Some quantity of Gold thread to the Dutch, & likewise took Some for himself, att a much less price then its Invoyce cost, but the error arose from a mistake, of the weight, Supposing them to be Troy weight, whereas itt was Venice, & should have been 9 oz. Averdupo [is] however itt appearing a certain loss, to the Comp[a] either upon design or ignorance, or rather the want of a carefull enquiry into the Invoyce, Wee do therefore agree that M[r] Davis do make good the reall Invoyce price, for that which he has taken for himself, & that he advance, 25 p̃ C[t] upon that Sold the Dutch &c[a] and that the Accomptant do examine the Books, & make up the Accompt accordingly, & M[r] Cawley being demanded if he had any more, to inform us, that M[r] Davis Sold to the Comp[as] prejudice, who declares he remembers nothing more.

* These Consultations have been taken from Pages 249—260 of Public Consultations, Vol. XIII.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, OCTOBER 1687.——

Mr Cawley charges Mr Davis for giving unnecessary Presents to the Country Governours, particularly to the amt of Pago 217 to Vittula Pille, Chief Sobidar of that Country, & that his design therein was, to accomodate the business of his Ship then in the Road, & to have the advantageous return of a Tasheriff. Article 9.

To which Mr Davis answers that by advice and order of Councill, so much was given to Vittula Pille, upon his coming into that Government, which in their opinion could not bee avoided without great prejudice, to the Compas affairs, & upon examination wee find, they had a Serious debate about this matter, as appears by their Diary of the 26th June, wherein they give their reasons for the necessity of that Present to Vittula Pille, & the Consultation Signed, by John Davis, Ralph Ingram, William Cawley, Christopher Willson, & Joseph Loe, without any exception, thô now Mr Cawley affirms, he then gave his reasons to the contrary, & very much disapproved thereof, but such Presents being unavoidable to new Governours, wee cannot but approve itt.

November the 2d 1687.

Mr Cawley in this Article charges Mr Davis for allowing Doctor Grudgfeild Pago 4 p̃ month, diett money, notwithstanding he constantly eat, att the Generall Table, alledging itt no ways encreased the Honble Compas charge, but itt being contrary to the Honble Compas Rules & in itt self very unreasonable to receive diet mony and diett both, wee wholy disallow the charge, ordring Mr Davis to reimburse the Honble Compa of that expence, either by himself or the Doctor, for the time Mr Cawley Saies he has dieted att the Generall Table, but in consideration of the mans poverty, to repay the Same, & great family & that neither his wife nor Children, came to the Table, or partook of any other allowance, but the Pago 4 p̃ month, also wee are very well Satisfied of the poor mans great dilligence & industry, The Generall Books, Diarys, Consultations, Letters, and all other Letters & papers, appearing here to bee under his handwriting, for which att that time they wanted assistance & also as being an old Servant of the Honble Compas We therefore think itt just and reasonable to allow him one third part, of the foresaid Pago 4 p̃ month, in consideration of his great paines, & writing work, and that the remaining two thirds bee made good to the Honble Compas Cash. Article 10.

To this Article Mr Luckin is charged to bee indebted to the Compa Pago 245, but has discharged the Same, to Pago 56 or 58 which Mr John Littleton here present in Councill, is become Security to pay the Same to the Honble Compa, which is Sufficient in that point, thô we have a good Character of Mr Luckins dilligence and Sobriety. Article 11.

As to what Mr Cawley saies concerning Mr Davis his extravigant entertaining of severall freemen att the Compas table, but being examined how often & how many, were so entertain'd he could give us no particular acct proof therein, but Still affirms itt in genll tearms, thô Mr Ingram then one of that Councill, declares he remembers no Such thing for constancy practised, but there being no publick houses, in those parts, itt necessitates the Masters of our Country Sloops, &ca to eat att the Generall Table; As to Mr Davis his being att Portonovo, itt was by order of the President & Councill, whose first order he also obeyed by his return from thence, & that the Kempthorn was not delayed through any meanes or delay of their Sortment, wee having Sufficient goods to lade her, and dispatched her full home in Season.

As to Mr Davis his contract with the Merchants to the amount of Pago 60000 half in mony and half in Europe goods wee esteemed itt a good service, thô wee also then pressed them, to forbear the Interest or delay itt as long as they could, wherein they assured us, they did their best endeavours, as itt appears by their Consultation, there being no exceptions against itt. Article 12.

Mr Davis charged with the ill husbandry of keeping Seven horses, which upon examination we find five to bee the Honble Compas kept att their charge, for the use of each one of Councill, thô we must condemn itt, to bee a very unnecessary, Article 13.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1687.——

and unusuall charge, which they excuse themselves in, upon the Score of their charge, & business att Portonovo, which calls them oft thether, thô Mr Cawley affirmes that notwithstanding those horses, they often put the Honble Compa to the expence of Pallenkeen hire, but remembers not the particular times, persons or charge, as to the other two horses, Mr Davis affirmes was not upon the Compas charge, but had only their Standing in the Compas Stable, which Mr Cawley att present cannot disprove, therefore itt is order'd that the Pursers accts be further examined by the Accomptant, & if found to be otherways that Mr Davis pays that expence, there being more horses then were necessary att their cost and charge.

But as to the business of the Rice, which was here order'd to be provided and sent here, Mr Davis affirmes that the only reason of not observing said order, was by reason of its Scarcity & dearness in those parts, which so nearly equalled the price of these parts, that the difference would not pay the freight, & that what he provided for himself upon Ship Catharine, exceeded not the amt of Pago 400 and that sent to Acheen was only a small matter to mix amongst the Bales, which was much less then he intended for the aforesaid reason, of it's dearness, & one other consideration of his not sending grain, was from the great quantities that had from thence been late sent hither, which was formerly approv'd of by the late President and Council.

Article 14. As to this 14th Article, itt appears by the former examination that Mr Cawley had some difference, with the Portonovo Merchants which occation'd their repair to Coodaloor, to complain & have Satisfaction from the Chief & Councill there, without which they resolved to proceed no further upon their contract, which to accommodate wee think a necessary Present, having its intended effect.

Article 15. Upon examination of the 15th Article, wee find that Mr Davis comeing to the Fort upon his particular business, brought with him Soe considerable a number of the Coodaloor Peons, & that a robbery happening att an ajacent Town, occation'd their entertaining 10 more Peons tc Secure & guard the ffactory during his absence, which we think reasonable he should pay the charge of, till the return of the greatest part of those he carried with him, upon his particular occation.

Article 16. As to the Present made att Viopah Chittys daughters wedding, being a particular invitation to Mr Davis, & not any publike, business or concern of the Compas. Wee therefore think itt reasonable & just, & do accordingly order, that Mr Davis do repay the cost of that Present amt to Pago 62 there being no example of the like nature, here or in any other Factary [sic] upon that occation.

Article 17. As to the 17th & last Article, itt appears by a Generall Letter from the late President & Councill, to Coodaloor, that their contracts with those, & the Portonovo Merchts were approved of, & consequently the Presents made them, upon concluding the Same, which wee also agree to bee a Sufficient authority, for what they have done therein.

——FORT ST. GEORGE, NOVEMBER 1687.——

The examination of Mr John Davis his charge against Mr William Cawley taken as followeth Vizt:—

Mr John Davis in the first Article of his charge against Mr Cawley taxes him with speaking treasonable words, which were as followeth Vizt That he had often heard that the dissenting party were they that martyr'd King Charles the first, but he never knew, heard or read of any that were executed for itt. Which Mr Davis concludes to bee treasonable words, but upon advice with Sr John Biggs Judg Advocate, he declares his opinion, that althô those words may be foolish or fals, yet he finds nothing therein, that imports high treason, which being also our opinions, wee think fitt to proceed no further in itt, but to reprehend Mr Cawley, & caution him for such rash boldness for the future, or that he must expect a just punishment for his folly, thô Mr Cawley Solemnly avers, that he intended no ill, or disrespect therein, & that what he said was really truth having never heard any thing of these actions, living but two years in England, & the rest of his life in forreign parts of the world.

To the 19th Article wherein Mr Davis charges Mr Cawley with perjury, knavery & infidellity, all which high accusations were particularly examined, to the first whereof, Mr Davis can bring no proof that ever Mr Cawley was recorded in any Court, or before any Judge of Record for taking a fals Oath, which wee are informed is the true nature of perjury, but that he did itt upon presumption of Mr Cawleys rashly Swearing that he never embezled the Rt Honble Compas Cash, which he (Mr Davis) beleived to bee otherwise, but brings no other proof but his beleif, & one instance of borrowing Pago 60 of him, wch att the Same time hee lent itt, he deposes upon his Oath, Mr Cawley told him, itt was to make up his Cash, but upon examination, would not affirm, whether itt was the Rt Honble Compas his own, or any others Cash, Mr Cawley mentioning nothing thereof att that time, to Mr Davis, but now declares to us, & acknowledges that hee borrowed Pago 200 of the Portonovo Merchants, as also Pago 60 near the Same time of Mr Davis, both which Summes Mr Cawley immediatly paid to Side Lebo a Merchant of the Said place, to whom he was indebted for goods bought of him, and sent to Junceilon.

Mr Willson's declaration was also read which besides his beleif, & presumption of Mr Cawleys errors, imports no more then a referrence to Mr Ingrams knowledge and report, thereof, wherupon Mr Ingram was sent for and examined what he knew relating to Mr Cawley's making use of the Rt Honble Compas Cash, when att Coodaloor & Portonovo, who only affirms, that Mr Davis and the Merchants lent him mony when there, which he beleives was to make up, the Honble Compas Cash, but brings no proof thereof.

And upon the whole matter having examined Mr Cawley's Cash Books and receipts, to which Mr Davis could make noe objection, either as to payments, or want of Cash att any time, and wee also find, that upon Mr Ingrams going to Portonovo, near the 10th of Decer 1685 recd Pago 117: 14: 0 in full ballance of the Rt Honble Compas Cash, as p̃ his receipt of the 17th of December 1685 and thô Mr Cawley may be guilty of many misdemeanors in his deportment & correspondency with those with whom he lived and conversed, being of an unquiett temper, yet in this case, wee think him wronged, and that the whole charge proceeds more from heat then matter.

JOHN STABLES Secry.

Ralph Ingrams declaration of what he knows of Mr Wm Cawleys charge against Mr John Davis Vizt.

Article 1 mo. As to this Article I know of no loss their servants suffer, by taking up mony of the Merchants, for as he receives itt, he pays itt to them & as to the favouring of the Merchants, I know nothing of itt, to the prejudice of the Honble Compa being the price currant.

2. Tis true Mr Davis bought two horses of his Servant Peddana, but whether he gave 40 or 50 p̃ Cent̃ more then they were worth, I cannot tell, As to the presenting his Servant as often as the Merchts I cannot bee possitive, without I had the perusall of the Diarys, as to the rest of that Article, I know nothing of.

Article 3. As to the Present of Pago 63 and odd fanams, which was given to Sancroge Pontolo, as aforesaid I can Say nothing to, without the Diarys, As to his presenting the Dutch every year anything to the Rt Honble Compas prejudice, I know nothing of. As for what he presents yearly att Coodaloor, & Portonovo, I beleive itt might bee necessary, and not to bee avoided, without obstructions to the Rt Honble Compas Affaires.

4. As to the Musters of Cloth wee Sort by att Coodaloor, which we have from the Fort, I allow are not altogeather so good, as att Portonovo, but to the best of our Judgments, wee Sorted to the highest, As to what Cloth Mr Davis took in, which Mr Cawley turn'd out sometimes, to my knowledg has been as good, and many times better then Muster, As for his calling a Councill, I never knew him do any thing of moment, without their advice (thô Mr Cawley is pleas'd to term us his own creatures, and Sign the Diarys when brought us, without any difficulty, thô att the Same instant, Mr Cawley himself never Scrupl'd itt) As to Mr Davis lending his mony, itt don't concern mee, As for the hedging in of expences, for fear of your Honrs &cas displeasure, I know nothing of itt.

Article 5. As to extravigant charge (which Mr Cawley is pleased to Say) in repairing our ffactory att Portonovo, I did nothing without advice and order, which was then well approved of, and no more then what was absolutly necessary, itt being So inconvenient before, that wee have been forced, to lye without doors in our Pallenkeens, and as'tis now, wee are forced to lye and eat all in one Room, So I think itt was done, with as much frugallity as possible, & Since wee reside in the Same house still, without any molestation, I do not See the folly Mr Cawley represents in so doing, and I think Senr Delmeda,has allowed some Small matter, towards the repairs.

Article 6. As to this Article I can say nothing to.

7. As to Mr Davis his private dealings which Mr Cawley Saith doth prejudice the Honble Compas concernes, I leave you to bee Judges, as for my part, I never Saw any thing by him, but what was fair dealing, As for his perswading the Merchants, to Supply him with what Cloth hee wanted, then he would not bee pressing with them, to bring in the Honble Compas so Speedily, I know nothing of that.

8. As for Mr Davis his making use of the Honble Compas goods to pleasure others I know nothing of, And as to his selling the Gold & Silver Thread 30 p̃ Cent̃ less then itt cost to the Dutch, which Mr Cawley taxes him with, I cannot tell, neither remember any such thing as to this point, I suppose the Books can satisfie therein.

9. As to the Pishcash that was given to Vittula Pilla, could itt att that time been any wayes excused, hee would have done itt, having used all endeavours possible to do itt, but could not without hindring the Honble Compas affaires.

10. As to this Article I referr to your Honr &ca.

11. As for Mr Luckins ill mannagment of his trust, I can no ways justifie, yet in Some measure, itt might bee imputed to his extraordinary illness, which might render him uncapable of doing his duty, as he ought, As to those many correspondents of Mr Davis (which Mr Cawley Says) eats att the Compas Table, and are almost as chargable as all the Compas Servants, I don't know who he means, for I never saw such extravagencies in my time, as he Speaks of, to which I referr. 12

As to this Article, I can Say nothing.

As to Mr Davis his Serving his own turn with Rice or Paddy to lade on board his own Vessell, before the Honble Compas, thô att the Same time hee had possitive orders to supply the Compa therewith, I know nothing of the matter. 13 14

As to this Article I know nothing of.

As to the taking more Peons to guard the Factory, in Mr Davis his absence, I Satisfied your Honr &ca in my Diary. 15

As to these two last Articles, I can Say nothing to. 16
